Associate Professor of Violin, Kennesaw State University

Helen Kim joined the music faculty in 2006 at Kennesaw State University with a stellar performance background. She made her orchestral debut with the Calgary Philharmonic at the age of six, and has gone on to become a respected and sought-after artist. She has appeared as a soloist with the Boston Pops at Boston’s Symphony Hall, as well as with the Milwaukee and Atlanta Symphony Orchestras.

Ms. Kim earned her Master’s degree from the Juilliard School, where her teachers included Cho-Liang Lin and Dorothy DeLay. She is the recipient of more than one hundred national and international awards. In 1992, she won the prestigious Artists International Competition in New York and as a result, gave debut recitals at Carnegie Weill Hall and the Aspen Summer Music Festival.

A native of Canada, Ms. Kim has been engaged by many of Canada’s leading orchestras, including the National Arts Center Orchestra, Montreal Metropolitan Orchestra, Vancouver Symphony, McGill Chamber Orchestra, and the Windsor, Regina, Victoria and Prince George Symphonies. She has also appeared with the Cobb, Georgia Symphony Orchestra, DeKalb, New Orleans, Aspen and Banff Festival Orchestras, and with orchestras in the United Kingdom, Germany and Poland.

Ms. Kim has toured extensively throughout Canada and the United States, including performances at Alice Tully Hall and the Sante Fe and La Jolla International Music Festivals where she performed with Cho-Liang Lin, Gary Hoffman, Andre Previn, and the Orion String Quartet. She performed Bach’s Double Violin Concerto with Hilary Hahn at the 2002 Amelia Island Chamber Music Festival.

Ms. Kim has been profiled on national and international television and has appeared on CBC, PBS and CBS networks. Her performances have been aired on NPR and CBC radio networks. Ms. Kim served as assistant and associate concertmaster for the Atlanta Symphony for three seasons. She is currently the assistant concertmaster of the Atlanta Opera Orchestra. Ms. Kim performs with local new music ensembles, Bent Frequency, Sonic Generator, Thamyris and recently joined the Atlanta Chamber Players.

Co-Director, Duluth High School Orchestras

Shawn Morton is in her fourteenth year as an orchestra teacher in Gwinnett County. She currently teaches at Duluth High School. She graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Music in music education and a minor in viola. While attending UGA, Mrs. Morton was a member of the Honors program and was president of the UGA chapter of the American String Teachers Association. Mrs. Morton also holds a Master of Business Administration from Shorter College. She has worked as a sectional coach with the Gwinnett County Youth Symphony, and she has served as a clinician for local school orchestras, the Spivey Hall Chamber Orchestra Workshop, The Gwinnett County Violapalooza Festival, the Gwinnett County 6th Grade Honor Orchestra, the UGA Summer Music Camp, and various other workshops and clinics.

Her students have been named as members of Kendall Youth Orchestra, Gwinnett County Youth Symphony, Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra, Emory Youth Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra, and the Georgia All-State Orchestra. In addition, Mrs. Morton’s orchestras have performed at the 2007 and 2014 Midwest Clinics, 2009 American String Teachers Association Conference, the 2011 Georgia Music Educators Association Conference, and the 2013 National Band and Orchestra Festival at Lincoln Center. Mrs. Morton is a member of the American String Teachers Association, Georgia Music Educators Association, Professional Association of Georgia Educators, and Sigma Beta Delta. In addition, she is currently the GA ASTA secretary. She resides in Dacula with her husband Dale, son Hudson, and dogs Harmony and Mozart.

Co-Director, Duluth High School Orchestras

Peter Lemonds is currently Co-Director of Orchestras at Duluth High School and the high school orchestra lead teacher for Gwinnett County Public Schools. He has served on the curriculum writing committee for the Gwinnett County School of Science, Math and Technology and as chairman of the Fine Arts Department at Duluth High School and District 13 Orchestra Chair for the Georgia Music Educators Association. He is also Co-Director of the Gwinnett County Youth Orchestra.

As a performing cellist, conductor, and educator, Dr. Lemonds has enjoyed a varied music career. He has performed numerous concerts as a soloist and chamber musician in the United States, England, France, Italy, Austria, Germany, Switzerland, Mexico, and Korea. He was a finalist in the Dealy Awards Competition and winner of the Alpha Delta Kappa International Cello Competition. He was an Assistant Professor of Music at the University of Southern Mississippi, was a teaching affiliate at Emory University, Agnes Scott College, and Bates College, and was on the faculty of the Sewanee Summer Music Center. Dr. Lemonds has performed with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, the Atlanta Opera, the Atlanta Virtuosi, the Atlanta Pops Orchestra, and the Atlanta Bach Ensemble. As a cellist, he has backed up such artists as Sarah Brightman, Smokey Robinson, Rod Stewart, Al Jarreau, Bob Hope, Bernadette Peters, Johnny Cash, Mary Chapin Carpenter, Dionne Warwick, Beyonce Knowles and Page & Plant of Led Zeppelin. In addition, he recorded “Georgia On My Mind” with Ray Charles for Georgia Public Television.

As an orchestra teacher, Dr. Lemonds has directed the orchestra program for the Georgia Governor’s Honors Program and has taught at the Lovett School, the Paideia School, Wheeler High School, East Cobb Middle School, North Gwinnett High School, and Duluth Middle School. He holds a Master of Music degree from Louisiana State University and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of the South, Sewanee. He received a Ford Foundation Fellowship for doctoral study at the Conservatory of Music at the University of Missouri, where he completed his dissertation, The Carl Flesch Violin Scale System: An Edition for Cello, and was awarded the Doctor of Musical Arts degree. He has studied conducting with Robert Culver, William LaRue Jones, and Glen Block. His ensembles have been selected to perform at the Georgia Music Educators Convention in Savannah, Georgia, five times and twice for the National Orchestra Festival, placing first in 2005 at Reno and third in 2007 in Detroit.

In 2007, the Duluth High School Chamber Orchestra performed at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic in Chicago, Illinois. DHS orchestra performed at Avery Fisher Hall in Lincoln Center in April 2013, receiving top honors in the National Orchestra Festival and performed at the 2014 Midwest Clinic in Chicago, Illinois. Dr. Lemonds received the Distinguished Educator Award from the Yale University School of Music in 2011 and was named the Georgia String Educator of the Year by the American String Teachers Association in 2013.

Co-Director, Peachtree Ridge High School Orchestras

Victoria Enloe has taught orchestra for 14 years and currently teaches at Peachtree Ridge High School. Mrs. Enloe earned her Bachelor of Music and Master of Music in Music Education from the University of Georgia. She has coached sectionals for Kendall Youth Orchestra and Gwinnett County Youth Symphony, has worked as a guest clinician and adjudicator in the metro-Atlanta area, and served as the 2015 All-State 9-10 String Orchestra coordinator. Mrs. Enloe is a member of the Georgia Music Educators Association and the American String Teachers Association and is the editor for Georgia Music News magazine.

Bernadette Scruggs received her Bachelor of Music in Education and her Master of Music in Education from Columbus State University. She earned both an Ed.S. and a Ph.D. in Music Education from Georgia State University. Prior to teaching in the Gwinnett County School System, Dr.
Scruggs taught for both the Floyd County and the Clayton County School Systems. While teaching in Clayton County, Dr. Scruggs was a director of the Clayton County Honor Orchestra. Under her direction, this middle school string ensemble performed at the Southern Division Music Educator’s National Conference in Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Scruggs has also been a director for the Clayton County Youth Symphony, which was invited to perform for the Georgia Music Association Educators Conference. At Pointe South Middle School, where she taught for eleven years, the orchestra performed at several festivals, receiving First Place Awards, as well as consistently receiving superior ratings at yearly performance evaluation events.

Over her career, five of Dr. Scruggs’s groups have been invited to perform at the Georgia Music Educators Association annual In-Service Conference. Dr. Scruggs was voted the 1995 Pointe South Teacher of the Year and the 1999 Hull Middle School Teacher of the Year. Currently, she is an orchestra director at Peachtree Ridge High School. Dr. Scruggs has served as state secretary for the Georgia chapter of the American String Teachers Association and as both a Vice President and President for the Georgia Music Educators Association (GMEA). She currently holds the position of Past President’s Representative for GMEA and is in her seventh year as Co-Director of the Gwinnett County Youth Symphony.

Interim Director of Orchestras, Kennesaw State University

Nathaniel F. Parker, a talented and dynamic musician, joined the Kennesaw State University faculty as Interim Director of Orchestras and Assistant Professor of Music in fall 2015; he also serves as Interim Conductor of the Georgia Youth Symphony Orchestra’s Symphony Orchestra and was recently appointed Conductor of the Concert Orchestra at New England Music Camp (Maine). Equally at home working with professionals and training future generations of musicians, Dr. Parker has conducted orchestras in the United States, Peru, Russia, Poland, and the Czech Republic. His recent guest conducting engagements include appearances with the Jackson Symphony Orchestra (Michigan), the Connecticut Music Educators Association All-State Orchestra and the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association District 9 String Fest. In February, he will serve as Guest Conductor and Clinician for the Georgia Music Educators Association (GMEA) District 12 Middle School Honor Orchestra.

Also an active scholar, Dr. Parker’s writings have been published by the Conductors Guild and the College Orchestra Directors Association (CODA). He has presented research at the College Orchestra Directors Association’s national and international conferences and currently serves as Editor of the Journal of the Conductors Guild. In 2015 he received a Citation of Excellence in Teaching from the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

Prior to his appointment at Kennesaw State, Dr. Parker served as Director of Orchestral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music at Marywood University (Pennsylvania) where he was Music Director and Conductor of the Marywood University Orchestra and taught courses in conducting, instrumental methods, musicology, and analytical techniques. Other previous positions include Assistant Conductor and Production Manager of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra (Michigan), Music Director and Conductor of the Jackson Youth Symphony Orchestra, Director of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra Community Music School, Graduate Conducting Intern at Michigan State University, Music Director and Conductor of the Mason Orchestral Society’s Community Orchestra and Youth Symphony (Michigan), Assistant Director of Music at Xaverian High School (New York), Conductor of the New Music Festival of Sandusky Orchestra (Ohio), and Graduate Assistant Conductor and Teaching Assistant at Bowling Green State University (Ohio).

Parker earned a Doctor of Musical Arts in Orchestral Conducting from Michigan State University, where his primary instructors were Leon Gregorian and Raphael Jiménez. He earned a Master of Music in Orchestral Conducting from Bowling Green State University, where he studied with Emily Freeman Brown; his other conducting mentors include Stephen Osmond, Gary W. Hill and Timothy Russell. In addition to his training in academia, Dr. Parker participated in numerous conducting master classes and workshops, conducting orchestras under the tutelage of nationally and internationally renowned conductors and conducting pedagogues including Christoph Eschenbach, George Hurst, Arthur Fagen, Markand Thakar, Mark Gibson, David Itkin, Jorge Mester, and Paul Vermel. Parker began his collegiate education at Arizona State University, where he studied bassoon with Jeffrey G. Lyman and graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Music in Bassoon Performance.

Nat resides in Woodstock with his wife, Melody, their son, Jacob, and their dog, Sammy.

Welcome to our campus! The School of Music is an exciting place to live, learn and work. Housed in the College of the Arts, the School is infused with masterfully skilled and dedicated performing teachers who care deeply about their profession, our programs, our community and every student involved in music and the arts. Our facilities are aesthetically functional and well equipped, our professional staff first-class, and our motivation perfect; to prepare students to be accomplished, creative arts leaders - diversely trained, acutely challenged and well-practiced to ensure employability and empowerment to take the 21st-century music world by storm.

Our students come to us from the leading musical arts and honors organizations from across the southeast, and as a School of Music, we are dedicated to the purpose of furthering the arts and cultural offerings of our region and beyond.

Please take the time to meet our faculty, students and staff. Interact with them, talk shop with them - their enthusiasm is contagious whether on or off the stage. I look forward to a long and rewarding relationship, and with your involvement as an audience member and patron, there are no limits to what we can become. If we can be of assistance to you, simply ask.
