1-1-2014

The Thinker 2.01

Amy Thompson
Kennesaw State University, athompso@kennesaw.edu

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/lib_news
Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation
http://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/lib_news/22

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Horace W. Sturgis Library at DigitalCommons@Kennesaw State University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Library Newsletters by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Kennesaw State University.
Kudos! Three of our library staff deserve recognition for recently obtaining degrees. Carey Huddelston, Masters in Library and Information Science; Chris Sharpe, Masters in Public Administration; and Johnny Woods, Masters of Instructional Design and Technology. Congratulations!

2014 is the Year of the Horse according to Chinese astrology. It is also The International Year of Family Farming, an initiative promoted by the World Rural Forum. January is National Blood Donor month and January 20th the nation celebrates Martin Luther King’s birthday.

How many ways can you get research help? There are five different ways that you can get reference help. First, you can walk-in to our Research Clinic located in room 113 in the Information Commons on the first floor of the Sturgis Library.

Second, you can text your reference question to (770) 983-6547. Third, you can call us at (770) 423-6325. Fourth, you can schedule a one-on-one appointment with a Reference Librarian. (These appointments must be made at least 72 hours in advance.) Fifth, you can chat online with a librarian almost anytime, day or night. The “Live Help” box can be found on nearly every page of our website.

Did you know? This issue of THE THINKER is the anniversary edition. The first issue was produced January 2013. Samples of all twelve 2013 issues are on display in the lobby and available for download via the Digital Commons. Extra copies of this month’s issue are available at the Information Desk.

ARTstor is a digital image library for the arts, humanities, and sciences with over 1.6 million images incorporating outstanding collections from museums, photo archives, artists, and photographers. All images are available for scholarly use, including a collection for use in academic publishing. Images can be saved individually or downloaded in groups as PowerPoint presentations. ARTstor also features a mobile app, which includes a flashcard function to enrich studying. Choose ARTstor to enhance scholarship, teaching, and learning. Ask-A-Librarian for assistance!

Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. ~Ralph Waldo Emerson

Have a question or comment about this newsletter? Email libraryreference@kennesaw.edu