Guidelines for Submissions to

The Southeastern Librarian

1. The Southeastern Librarian (SELn) seeks to publish articles, announcements, and news of professional interest to library staff in the Southeast. Articles need not be of a scholarly nature but should address professional concerns of the library community. SELn particularly seeks articles that have a broad southeastern scope and/or address topics identified as timely or important by SELA sections, round tables, or committees.
2. News releases, newsletters, clippings, and journals from libraries, state associations, and groups throughout the region may be used as sources of information.
3. Manuscripts should be directed to Frank R. Allen, SELn Editor, University of Central Florida Library, P.O. Box 162666, 4000 Central Florida Blvd; Orlando Florida, 32816-2666. Email: fallen@mail.ucf.edu or fax (407) 823-2529.
4. Although longer works may be considered, 2,000- to 5,000-word manuscripts are most suitable. Manuscripts should be double-spaced (text, references, and footnotes) and may be submitted in either print or electronic form. If submitting electronically please use MS Word or compatible format if possible. For final copy please do not use imbedded endnotes.
5. The name, position, and professional address of the author should appear in the bottom left-hand corner of a separate title page.
6. Authors should use the author-date system of documentation. The editors will refer to the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style. The basic form for the reference within the text is as follows: (Hempel 1990, 24).

The basic form for articles and books in the reference list is as follows:

Hempel, Ruth. 1990. "Nice Librarians Do!" American Libraries 21 (January): 24-25.

Senn, James A. 1984. Analysis of Information Systems. New York: McGraw-Hill.

7. Photographs will be accepted for consideration but cannot be returned.
8. The Southeastern Librarian is not copyrighted. Copyright rests with the author. Upon receipt, a manuscript is acknowledged by the Editor. Following review of a manuscript, a decision is communicated to the writer. A definite publication date is given before publication. Publication can be expected within twelve months.
9. Ads for elected offices, other than those within the Southeastern Library Association, may be purchased. The appearance of an ad does not imply endorsement or sponsorship by SELA. Please contact the Editor for further information.
