Issue 1.4

The Thinker

April 2013

Performing Arts Library

The Performing Arts Library (PAL for short), Wilson Bldg. 246, helps meet research and performance needs of theatre, music, and dance students at KSU. Music scores, playscripts, CDs, DVDs and other items are collected based on student and faculty requirements in these areas, and, with some exceptions, they are available for use by all the campus community.

Congratulations to library staff member Dianne Bridges for being named KSU Employee of the Month for February!

Librarian Favorites

Where do librarians start their research? The top two favorite places are the databases Research Library and Academic Search Complete. Both these resources cover core academic subject areas and include thousands of full-text and peer-reviewed journals, magazines, newspapers, and more. They are powerful research tools used on their own, but their content is also available through Supersearch. Need help? Ask-A-Librarian!
