FEATURED DATABASE

offers high-quality content to support scholarship. It includes archives of over 1700 leading academic journals in the humanities, social sciences, and sciences, reaching back to the first volumes published with a two year embargo on most titles. All JSTOR is full-text searchable, and is interlinked by millions of citations and references. JSTOR content is continuously expanding. The oldest publication, Philosophical Transactions, dates back to 1665.

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Pride Month (LGBT Pride Month) is currently celebrated each year in the month of June to honor the 1969 Stonewall riots in Manhattan. The Stonewall riots were a tipping point for the Gay Liberation Movement in the United States. Today, celebrations include pride parades, picnics, parties, workshops, symposia and concerts, and LGBT Pride Month events attract millions of participants around the world.

Memorials are held during this month for those members of the community who have been lost to hate crimes or HIV/AIDS. The purpose of the commemorative month is to recognize the impact that lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender individuals have had on history locally, nationally, and internationally.
