Mass of a Troubled Time
I. Kyrie
II. Gloria

Veljo Tormis
Lyrics: Gustav Suits

Mass of a Troubled Time was written in loving memory of my grandmother Margaret C. Urbach after her death. This mass is a song of hope defining the struggles, anguish, longing, and heartache after a loved one's passing. The movements Kyrie, Gloria Sanctus/Benedictus and Agnus Dei are original to the mass structure with the inclusion of Psalm 23 in place of the traditional Credo text and a final Amen.

-Brian A. Schmidt

I. Kyrie

Kyrie eleison,
Christe eleison,
Kyrie eleison.

II. Gloria

Gloria in excelsis Deo, Et in terra pax hominibus
bonae voluntatis, Laudamus te, benedictimus te,
adoramus te, glorificamus te,
Gratias agimus tibi propter magnam gloriam tuam,
Domine Deus, Rex coelestis, Deus Pater omnipotens.
Domine Fili unigenite, Jesu Christe,
Domine Deus, Agnus Dei,
Filius Patris,
Qui tollis peccata mundi,
misericordis nobis,
suscipe deprationem nostram,
Qui sedes ad dexteram Patris,
misericordis nobis,
Quoniam tu solus sanctus,
tu solus Dominus,
tu solus altissimus, Jesu Christe, cum sancto spiritu in gloria Dei Patris. Amen.

Lord, have mercy,
Christ, have mercy,
Lord, have mercy.

Glory to God in the highest.
And on earth peace to all those of good will.
We praise thee, we bless thee,
we worship thee, we glorify thee,
We give thanks to thee
according to thy great glory,
Lord God, Heavenly King,
God the Father almighty.
Lord Jesus Christ the only begotten Son.
Lord God, Lamb of God,
Son of the Father.
Thou who takest away the sins of the world,
have mercy upon us.
Receive our prayer.
Thou who sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy upon us.
For Thou alone art holy.
Thou alone art the Lord.
Thou alone art the most high, Jesus Christ.
With the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen.
In addition to his vast output of German poetry, Rilke (1875-1926) wrote nearly 400 poems in French. His poems on roses struck me as especially charming, filled with gorgeous lyricism, deftly crafted and elegant in their imagery. These exquisite poems are primarily light, joyous and playful, and the musical settings are designed to enhance these characteristics and capture their delicate beauty and sensuousness. Distinct melodic and harmonic materials recur throughout the cycle, especially between Rilke's poignant Contre Qui, Rose (set as a wistful nocturne) and his moving La Rose Complète. The final piece Dirait-on, is composed as a tuneful chanson populaire, or folksong, that weaves together two melodic ideas first heard in fragmentary form in preceding movements.

-Morten Lauridsen

Abandon entouré d’abandon, tendresse touchant aux tendresses... C'est ton intérieur qui sans cesse caresse, dirait-on; se caress en soi-même, par son propre reflet éclairé. Ainsi tu inventes le thème du Narcisse exaucé.

Rainer Maria Rilke, from Les Roses

English translation by Barbara and Erica Muhl

Estonian national musical expression is based on runosongs, an age-old traditional song repertoire dating back thousands of years. Mainly, protective and location-devoted girls and women, who have passed it down to our times, maintained this music. These songs are sometimes called women's songs. Their characteristic features are alliteration and trochee of four feet. The men, on the other hand, have always been more mobile, and traveled around either as seafarers or warriors. From distant lands they brought back different newer tunes and other topics to sing about. This cycle represents such men's songs, a repertoire already a hundred years old. These songs reflect in general a humorous and cheerful atmosphere. Some may be even indecent, so that the singers shun from articulating all the words instead: mh-mh-mh. These men songs may be performed in cycles or as single movements.

Many thanks to Katrin Nõgols for sharing her beautiful language, interpretation, and delightful spirit throughout this project!

Meie oleme aga mehed kui metsapullid, Aru Jaani hallid sönnid, läheme muudkui metsa mõirates ja tammikusse tallates.

Las tulevad aga tuhat Tuudi meest ja sada Sauga valla meest, kül meie neid siis puistame ja margapuuga mõõdame!

Küte mäla külmad suanad, teeme terveks haiged neiud, laseme kupp u Keie, mahakukkund Maiele.

We are men like wild bulls, Aru Jaan’s grey steers, bellowing we go to the woods, trampling to the oak grove.

Let them come, the thousand men of Tuudi, another hundred from Sauga parish, we shall scatter them to the winds and take their measure by steelyard. We shall heat up the cold village saunas, heal sickly maidens, put cupping glasses on Kei, and on fallen Maie.
Muudel on sängid ja muudel mängid,
mül ei sängi, mül ei mängi,
mure minul on ja teomehe hool,
ei neist pääse kuskile poole.

Kui mina vaeneke väsind olen,
kus ma selle koorma panen?
Mure panen musta parre pääl,
hoole heida õrre pääle,

Hommikul, tilluke, jälle teole, väeti, härra välja pääle,- trouble comes back into my bosom, care runs along into the yard.

Oi jumal, oi jumal, jumaluke,
viska alla vinnaköied,
Oh, Lord, dear Lord, throw down some hoisting ropes
Viska alla vinnaköied,
et ma üles taeva teomeheks saaks
so I could enter the heavenly bond, make hay for Maria in the Creator’s realm.

Las aga meie Mari tulla,
küll mina teen tal jalad alla.
My sock heels have holes
like an old mare’s blaze.

VII. Teomehe-laul (Serf’s Song)

I. Meeste laul (Men’s Song) cont.

We do not fear drowning
nor falling into a well,
headlong we plunge into a creek,
rush into a bear’s lair.

We do not fear drowning
nor falling into a well,
headlong we plunge into a creek,
rush into a bear’s lair.

VIII. Tantsulaul (Dancing Song)

Las aga meie Mari tulla,
küll mina teen tal jalad alla.
My sock heels have holes
like an old mare’s blaze.

Las aga meie Mari tulla,
küll mina teen tal jalad alla.
My sock heels have holes
like an old mare’s blaze.

Yonder Come Day
Georgia Sea Islands Song
Paul John Rudoi

Yonder Come Day deepens the traditional Georgia Sea Islands tune with a narrative journey. Through other well-known spirituals including Hush, Hush, Somebody’s Calling My Name, Steal Away, and Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, we move forward and upward, hoping for a better day.

- Paul John Rudoi

Oh day, Yonder come day.
Day done broke inna my soul, Yonder come day.
Good mornin’ day, Yonder come day.
A brand new day, Yonder come day.
Oh come on child,
Hush, hush, somebody’s callin’ my name.
Oh my Lord, oh my Lord what shall I do?

Oh day, Yonder come day.
Day done broke inna my soul, Yonder come day.
Good mornin’ day, Yonder come day.

Director of Choral Activities / Professor of Music and Music Education

Leslie J. Blackwell is the Director of Choral Activities and Professor of Music and Music Education at Kennesaw State University where she has directed choral activities since 1998. Dr. Blackwell’s duties include conducting the KSU Men’s Ensemble and KSU Chamber Singers as well as teaching advanced choral conducting and literature. A native of Georgia, Blackwell received the Associate of Arts degree from Gordon Junior College (1982), the Bachelor of Music in Music Education from West Georgia College (1984), the Master of Music from Georgia State University (1991), and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Kentucky (2002).

Choirs under Dr. Blackwell’s direction have performed at National, Regional, and State conferences of the American Choral Directors Association as well as numerous Georgia Music Educators Association State Conventions. In 2010 Dr. Blackwell presented Songs of South America for the American Choral Directors Association with the KSU Chamber Singers, featuring music of South America based upon her choral research and work in Argentina. In October 2013 the KSU Chamber Singers were selected to perform at the National Collegiate Choral Organization 5th National Conference.

Recognized for her work with men’s voices, Dr. Blackwell served six seasons as the Artistic Director of the Atlanta Gay Men’s Chorus, established the annual KSU Male Chorus Day at Kennesaw State University, bringing upwards of 200 high school male students to campus, conducted the 2013 Georgia All-State Men’s Chorus, and 2016 Alabama All-State Men’s Chorus. Under Dr. Blackwell’s direction the KSU Men’s Ensemble, a non-auditioned ensemble, has achieved prestigious accomplishments on a State, Regional, and National stage.

Influential musicians with whom Dr. Blackwell has worked are Robert Shaw, Ann Howard-Jones, Yoel Levi, Norma Raybon, John Haberlen, David Maslanka, Ola Gjeilo, Ethan Sperry, Brian Schmidt, and Jefferson Johnson. In addition to her commitments at Kennesaw State University, Dr. Blackwell is active as a clinician and adjudicator and holds memberships in MENC, GMEA, and ACDA. She also serves as the Repertoire and Standards Chair for Men’s Choirs, Georgia ACDA. Currently, Dr. Blackwell is the Artistic Director and Founding Director of the Kennesaw State University Community & Alumni Choir.

Principal Accompanist

Sherri N. Barrett received her Bachelor’s Degree from the University of Michigan and her Master’s Degree in Piano Performance from the University of Tennessee. She studied with Eugene Mancini from the Cleveland Institute of Music and Arthur Rivituso from the Juilliard School and Paris Conservatory. Ms. Barrett has recorded two solo piano CD’s and has been an active soloist, accompanist and adjudicator in the Atlanta area for over 25 years. She has performed in the United States and Europe as soloist, in chamber ensembles and accompanist for various choral groups. She maintains a teaching studio out of which several students have won international piano competitions. She is presently serving as pianist for two Atlanta area churches, and under the baton of Dr. Leslie J. Blackwell, the Kennesaw State University Chamber Singers, Men’s Ensemble, and KSU Community and Alumni Choir. Ms. Barrett is a member of the National Music Teachers Association and the International Music Fraternity Delta Omicron.

We are so very excited to be included as one of the performing ensembles at this year’s Southern Division ACDA Conference right up the road from our campus here in Kennesaw, Georgia! There is tremendous excitement in the University and School of Music about our choral program! That the Men’s Ensemble has been selected to perform has created a stir and a sense of accomplishment for all involved! Under the astute leadership of Dr. Leslie Blackwell, Director of Choral Activities, our choral program continues to grow and expand as we continue to train musical leaders of tomorrow.

The School of Music at Kennesaw State University is a busy, thriving, fast-paced, and growing place where our emphasis is on creating musicians for the 21st century. Making music and creating the next generation of diversely trained, well-skilled, and entrepreneurial music makers is our aim. I hope that on your way to Atlanta you will stop by and hear one of our more than 170 performances this year in the beautiful and acoustically tuned Dr. Bobby Bailey and Family Performance Center! We’re located one block west of Interstate 75, Chastain Road exit. Come by, experience the energy, and hear the music!! Join us!

Sincerely,

Stephen W. Plate, DMA
Director of the School of Music

The Kennesaw State University Men’s Ensemble is a non-auditioned choir open to students from across the KSU campus. The KSU Men’s Ensemble comprised largely of non-music majors ranging from freshmen to seniors representing a variety of musical backgrounds and academic disciplines. Under Dr. Blackwell’s direction the KSU Men’s Ensemble has achieved prestigious accomplishments on a State, Regional, and National stage. In 2007, the KSU Men’s Ensemble was featured at the Georgia Music Educators Association Conference presentation “Men...Can’t Live with Them, Can’t Sing without Them!” The KSU Men’s Ensemble performed at the 2012 Georgia Music Educators Association Conference in Savannah, Georgia and in the summer of 2013, the KSU Men’s Ensemble was featured at the American Choral Directors Association State Conference with Dr. Jerry Blackstone at Spivey Hall. Most recently, the Kennesaw State University Men’s Ensemble was selected to perform at the 2013 American Choral Directors National Conference in Dallas, Texas and as an invitational choir to the 2014 American Choral Directors Southern Division Conference in Jacksonville, Florida.

The KSU Men’s Ensemble is honored to perform at the 2016 American Choral Directors Southern Division Conference in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Our performance today is made possible through the generous support from the following:
