INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

David B. Gracy II Award

A $200 prize is presented annually to the author of the best article in Provenance. Named for David B. Gracy II, founder and first editor of Georgia Archive, now Provenance, the award began in 1990 with volume VIII. It is judged by the Provenance Editorial Board.

Editorial Policy

Members of the Society of Georgia Archivists and others with professional interest in the aims of the society are invited to submit manuscripts for consideration to Provenance. Manuscripts and related correspondence should be addressed to Editor Cheryl Oestreicher (provenance@soga.org). Review materials and related correspondence should be sent to Reviews Editor Jennifer M. Welch (welchje@musc.edu). The Editorial Board appraises submitted manuscripts in terms of appropriateness, scholarly worth, and clarity of writing. Contributors should not submit manuscripts simultaneously for publication in any other journal. Only manuscripts that have not been previously published will be accepted, and authors must agree not to publish elsewhere, without explicit written permission, a paper submitted to and accepted by Provenance. Two complimentary copies of Provenance will be provided to all authors. For additional information visit: http://soga.org/publications/provenance.

Information for Contributors

Letters to the editor that include pertinent and constructive comments or criticisms of articles or reviews recently published by Provenance are welcome. Ordinarily, such letters should not exceed 300 words. Manuscripts should be submitted as Word documents. Text, references, and endnotes should conform to copyright regulations and to accepted scholarly standards. Provenance uses The Chicago Manual of Style 16th edition as its style standard. Use of terms which have special meaning for archivists, manuscript...
