HOLIDAY STORIES with the KSU TELLERS and
BENTLEY RARE BOOK GALLERY
Co-Sponsored by the Horace W. Sturgis Library

Thursday, Dec. 4 | 4:30 p.m.
Owl Space II | Horace W. Sturgis Library

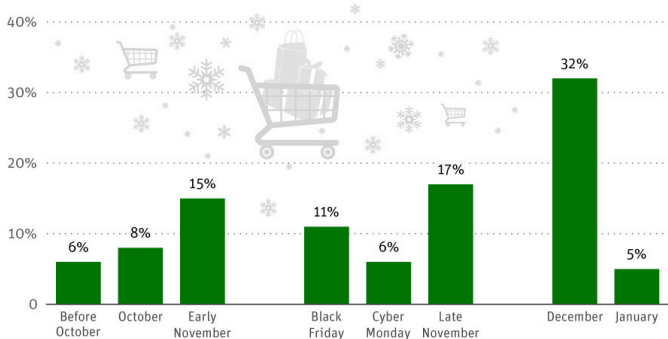

The Bentley Rare Book Gallery and KSU Tellers will present a fun and festive afternoon of holiday stories, adapting both classic and modern tales for children and adults alike. Volumes from the Gallery's holiday collections will be on display, and the Tellers will highlight pieces that have a connection to the Bentley's holdings.

Hot chocolate, cider, and holiday treats will be served, and the event is free and open to the public! For additional information, please call 470-578-6289.

MEET THE STAFF - JON HANSEN

So, some facts of me... What do you do at the library? I'm the head of the virtual services at the library. We're responsible for making sure everyone can get to the library's book catalog, databases, website, and most other electronic things. What is your favorite book? I've got a lot of favorites, but probably "The Stand" by Stephen King. I do love a good science fiction/fantasy/horror epic, and that's all three rolled into one! Do you have any pets/kids/family? I'm married with one son and three remarkably bossy cats. What is your favorite thing about the library that people might not know? The doorway to Narnia on the second floor. What is your greatest accomplishment/what are you most proud of? My proudest moment was the day my son was born. Other interesting facts about yourself? I like weird cheeses and strong tea. I'm a bit of an anglophile. I've ridden through the Chunnel. I'm a member of the Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers of America. Despite being a native of Georgia, I've neither seen nor read "Gone with the Wind". After Halloween is over, I like to cleave our jack o'lanterns in two with a broadsword. I still prefer print to ebooks. See the MEET THE STAFF display in the Library/Pilcher Lobby.
