Meet the Library Staff!

Carey Huddleston

I am a cataloger and public services assistant in the Performing Arts Library. I love cataloging! Fun with Magic and More Fun with Magic by Joseph Leeming were the first books I checked out by myself from a public library. These books sparked in me a sense of amazement regarding the wonderful things waiting to be discovered at the library. After earning a BA and MA in Music Education, I worked as a choral director and music educator in public schools throughout Georgia. I also worked as a full-time professional magician for seven years. I was the guy who came to the public library to present Summer

Reading Shows. I live with a wonderful woman, Denise. We have been married 34 years (whew!). We have one son, John, who lives in Seattle, WA. John is an actor and the Managing Director of the STAGEright Theater Company. Learn more interesting facts about Carey on our display in the Pilcher/Library lobby in October.
