MEET THE STAFF Steve Burton

What do you do at the library?
I manage the Performing Arts Library (or PAL) on the second floor of the Wilson Building. Our collections and services center around helping students and faculty in Dance, Music, Theatre and Performance Studies. We have mainly CDs, DVDs, musical scores and play scripts in our small library.

What book changed your life?
One I return to again and again as a favorite is Undaunted Courage by historian Stephen Ambrose. This non-fiction book tells the story of the Lewis and Clark Expedition that set out to explore America's "West" (anything west of the Mississippi River).

Do you have any pets/kids/family? I have a wife of 35 years whom I met in high school and a daughter who is 26. We have a 14 year-old, highly opinionated Dachshund and three step-cats and a step-dog that belong to our daughter.

Other interesting facts about yourself? I have a real interest in genealogy that started in undergraduate school, but unfortunately have little time to pursue it at the moment. My undergraduate and first masters degrees are in music. Since coming to Atlanta over 25 years ago, I've had the opportunity to sing with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus, under Robert Shaw and for five years as a staff singer at Atlanta's Cathedral of St. Philip. Both were out-of-this-world experiences for a singer. Great music done at an extremely professional level.
