Student News

Emily Deibler presented at the Southeastern Writing Center Association conference in Richmond, VA.

Ed Gadrix appeared in the off-Broadway production of In Three Days, April 6th through 8th. The play, by Atlanta playwright, Ted Johnson, has been previously performed at Metro Atlanta's 7 Stages in Little 5 points, and Marietta's New Theater in the Square. The off-Broadway production was performed at the 44-year legendary Black Spectrum Theater and produced by the New York production company of New Style Entertainment, Inc and New York entertainment executive, Gregory Hudson. Gadrix appears as the father of the co-protagonist in the play and the powerful and moving dialogue between the two is a critical focus in the resolution of their previous enmity.

Laura McCarter will be presenting at the International Congress on Visual Culture in Rome, Italy. Her presentation is titled "The Visual Language of Screenwriting."

Valerie Smith, who graduated from our MAPW Program in May, received the Best Graduate Oral Presentation Award for her presentation at the Symposium of Student Scholars last week. Here is an excerpt from Amy Buddie's notification, which offers quite a testimony to Valerie: "The judges were very impressed with your poetry reading, and the competition this year was fierce (this was the largest Symposium in its 23-year history)."

Laurel Ann Lowe's poem "Every Fifty-Three Days" was featured in the poetry wheels in Professor Erin Sledd's Breath of the Compassionate installation on Marietta campus in celebration of Equinox Week. Below are some images of the installation, courtesy of Professor Sledd.
