biography

Soyoun Min Sheehan, born in South Korea, is a junior of the Piano Performance major under Dr. Soohyun Yun at Kennesaw State University. Soyoun accompanies for vocalists as well as instrumentals, and serves as a pianist in the KSU Wind Ensemble. In addition to receiving scholarships from the Cobb County Music Teachers Association (CCMTA), KSU Cynthia Feldberg Endowed Piano Scholarship, and Steinway Endowed Scholarship, Soyoun has been recognized at several piano competitions including the Atlanta Romantic and Impressionistic Festival-Competition, GMTA State Audition and GMEA lower and middle college Competitions. Also, her performance at the master classes with world-renowned pianists, Jeremy Denk and Simone Dinnerstein gave Soyoun a valuable experience.

Soyoun has been invited to perform at on- and off-campus events hosted by CCMTA, KSU, and Atlanta Steinway Society, and moreover, her performance at the Atlanta-Korean Consulate General was featured in Korean Times in Atlanta. In summer 2015, Soyoun is excited to perform at the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Decorator's Show-house.

Honorably, Soyoun was selected to present a poster titled 'Motivating young Beginning Piano Students by Rhythm Counting Activities' at the 20th KSU Annual Symposium of Student Scholars. While she enjoys teaching pre-college students, Soyoun has been actively involved in the KSU-Music Teachers National Association Collegiate Chapter as a founding member and treasurer.

about the school of music

The School of Music at KSU has dedicated, vibrant, and talented faculty and staff that are completely devoted to teaching, performing, scholarship, and serving our community. It is an incredibly exciting place to study, boasting state-of-the-art facilities with opportunities to produce and explore music in a dynamic place that is ahead of the curve for what it means to be a musician in the 21st century. Our students come from the leading musical honor organizations across the region and are poised to lead the cultural offerings and musical education in our area and beyond for years to come.

We welcome you to attend a concert, meet our faculty and staff, and feel the energy and excitement that our students exude. We are fully committed to our purpose as educators, performers, and scholars. We hope that you will find as much enjoyment in our product as we do in producing it.

Michael Alexander
Interim Director, KSU School of Music
