Program Notes

Ritmo

DAN DAVIDSON

Ritmo is a very rhythmic piece with Spanish origin. It includes hand/body percussion, which is intended to be seen as much as it is intended to be heard. The composer, Dan Davison, has been a junior high music teacher in Puyallup, Washington since 1979.

Sanctus in D minor (BWV 239)

J. S. BACH

The complete works of J.S. Bach include five independent settings of the Sanctus, all of which are from the period in which Bach worked in Leipzig. The Sanctus in D minor was performed during the period of 1735-1746.

Earth Song

FRANK TICHELI

"Earth Song is one of only a few works that I have composed without a commission. Instead, it sprang out of a personal need during a time when so many in this country, including myself, were growing disillusioned with the war in Iraq. I felt a strong impulse to create something that would express my own personal longing for peace."

- Frank Ticheli

Amazing Grace

arr. MICHAEL HANAWALT

The text of Amazing Grace was written by John Newton between 1770 and 1780. The full text reflects his belief in human helplessness and a divine grace that provides the ultimate form of guidance. While the text was used with a number of different melodies, the tune "New Britain" is the one that ultimately became most associated with Amazing Grace.

This arrangement uses four verses of the text and incorporates elements of shape note singing and a more modern compositional style. Throughout the piece, open harmonies of fourths and fifths mesh with chord clusters and aleatoric effects.

Turot Eszik A Cigany

ZOLTAN KODALY

Zoltan Kodaly (1882-1967) was a Hungarian composer, ethnomusicologist, and pedagogue. He is most famous internationally as the creator of the Kodaly Method, an approach to music education developed to create independent musicians using folk song literature.

Son de Camaguey
STEPHEN HATFIELD

Son de Camaguey is a Cuban folk song inspired by kaleidoscopic patterns of ostinati. The verse of the song praises not only the music and scenery of the city of Camaguey, but also playful text reflecting how naturally good-looking the people are.

Translations

Ritmo

Ritmo, batir las manos al ritmo.
Habilmente, batir las manos al ritmo

Rhythm, clap your hands to the rhythm.
Capably, clap your hands to the rhythm.

Canten en coro gozoso,
con amor y esperanza.
Cantaremos en ritmo,
en coro.

Sing in joyful chorus,
with love and hope.
We will sing in rhythm,
we will sing in chorus.

Levanten sus voces,
levanta su corazon.
Con instrumentos musicales,
cantaremos de libertad y de amor.

Lift your voices,
lift your heart.
With musical instruments,
we will sing of freedom and love.

Hagen en harmonia, vamos a cantar y a jugar.
Todas voces, todas gentes.
Habilmente, con todas voces, con
instrumentos, con esperanza,
y con ritmo.
Batir las manos al ritmo.

Make harmony, let's go sing and play.

All voices, all people.
Capably, with all voices, with instruments, with hope,
with rhythm.
Clap your hands to the rhythm.

Cantaremos con gozo, con amor y esperanza.
Cantaremos de paz, cantaremos de amor.
Cantaremos con alegria y con gozo,
ritmo.

We will sing with joy, with love and hope.
We will sing of peace, we will sing of love.
We will sing with happiness and with joy, rhythm.

Sanctus

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra, gloria ejus.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.

Turot Eszik A Cigany

Turot eszik a cigany.
Veszekedik asutan, leba.

See the gypsies eating cheese,
after that they become quarrelsome.

Meg azt mondja, pofon vag, duba.
Vagja biz a nagyapjat, leba.

Csipkefa bimbo ja,
Kihaj lott az utra,
Rida, rida, bom, bom, bom.

Azra ment Janoska,
szakajt egygyet rola,
Rida, rida, bom bom bom.

They even say they will slap my face,
Why do they slap their grandfather?

The buds of the briar hung over the road,
rida, rida, bom bom bom.

Little Janos went that way
and picked one of them.
Rida, rida, bom bom bom.

Son de Camaguey

Esta es cosa Linda,
esta costa brava.
Camaguey, ay linda...
Estas tradiciones,
ay que lindas son,
Son de Camaguey.

That's a beautiful thing,
that splendid coast.
Camaguey, how beautiful...
Those traditions,
oh, what marvelous sounds,
the sounds of Camaguey.

Biographies

Assistant Professor of Choral Music Education

Alison Mann is Assistant Professor of Choral Music Education and Program Coordinator for Music Education at Kennesaw State University, where she teaches coursework in Choral Methods, Foundations of Music Education, Choral Conducting, and Vocal Pedagogy for Ensemble Singing. Mann also supervises student teachers and serves as Conductor of the KSU Women's Choir and KSU Chorale. She founded and directs the Middle and High School Georgia Youth Symphony Orchestra Chorus in conjunction with the Georgia Symphony Orchestra.

A native of Florida, Mann taught in the Orlando public schools as director of choral activities at William R. Boone High School and was also the assistant conductor of the Orlando Chorale. While in Orlando, choirs and soloists under her direction received top honors at the district and state levels.

Dr. Mann received her Ph.D. in Music Education and Choral Conducting from the University of Oregon, and a Masters of Choral Music Education and Bachelors of Choral Music Education from Florida State University. Dr. Mann has studied conducting and music education with André Thomas, Kevin Fenton, Sharon J. Paul, Judy Bowers, and Harry Price. Dr. Mann is currently the Southern Division ACDA Women's Choir Repertoire and Standards chair, and the Georgia state ACDA Membership Chair. Mann has also served as the ACDA Multicultural and Ethics Repertoire and Standards Chair for the states of Georgia and Oregon and the Georgia Women's Choir Repertoire and Standards Chair. The KSU Women's Choir was selected to perform for the Georgia Music Educators State In-Service Conference in 2014. Additionally in 2011, Dr. Mann performed the world premiere of Nico Muhly's composition, "How Soon" with Grammy-award winning ensemble 8th blackbird, and the KSU Women's Chorus. Her professional affiliations include the American Choral Directors Association, National Association for Music Education, Georgia Music Educators Association, National Collegiate Choral Organization, and the International Society for Music Education. Her research has been presented at the state, regional, and international levels. Dr. Mann is an active conductor, clinician, adjudicator, and researcher.

Wes Stoner, conductor

Wes Stoner, a native of Canton, Georgia, is the Choral Director at Hillgrove High School in the Cobb County School District, where he teaches and conducts the Chamber Choir, Select Women's Ensemble, and the Treble Chorus. He holds a Bachelor of Music in Music Education from the University of Georgia and a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from Michigan State University. Prior to Hillgrove, Wes taught choral music and music theory at Kennesaw Mountain High School, Lovejoy High School, and the Fine Arts Magnet at Mt. Zion High School, where he jointly served as Lead Teacher of Choral Music for the Clayton County Public Schools. Wes studied under Rodney Caldwell, Edgar Scruggs, Allen Crowell, David Rayl, Jonathan Reed, and Sandra Snow.

An active member within the Choral Division of GMEA, Wes served as the organizer for the District 6 High School Honor Chorus for four years, and recently served as the organizer for the Senior Women's All-State Chorus, under the direction of Dr. Sandra Snow. Wes is active as a clinician and guest conductor, having conducted numerous district honor choruses across the state. He is a frequent guest conductor of the Cherokee Chorale in Canton, most recently for its 2011, 12, 13 and 2014 Pops concert series. Currently, Wes is in his second term as the District 12 Choral Chair, and is the State Chair-elect for the GMEA Choral Division.

Wes maintains an active singing schedule, having appeared with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus and Chamber Chorus at New York's Carnegie Hall and twice with the Berlin Philharmonic, at its home, the Berlin Philharmonie. He also sings with, and serves as the assistant conductor for Coro Vocati, a professional chamber choral ensemble in Atlanta, conducted by Dr. John Dickson. In the summer of 2011, Wes sang in the choir for the C.S. Lewis Institute's Oxbridge program, in Oxford and Cambridge, England, and will return again in 2014. Wes is currently a staff singer at First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta. Professional affiliations include NAfME and ACDA.

Kennesaw State University School of Music

The School of Music at KSU has dedicated, vibrant, and talented faculty and staff that are completely devoted to teaching, performing, scholarship, and serving our community. It is an incredibly exciting place to study, boasting state-of-the-art facilities with opportunities to produce and explore music in a dynamic place that is ahead of the curve for what it means to be a musician in the 21st century. Our students come from the leading musical honor organizations across the region and are poised to lead the cultural offerings and musical education in our area and beyond for years to come.

We welcome you to attend a concert, meet our faculty and staff, and feel the energy and excitement that our students exude. We are fully committed to our purpose as educators, performers, and scholars. We hope that you will find as much enjoyment in our product as we do in producing it.
