SOLINET PERSONNEL NEWS

Timothy Cherubini joined SOLINET as the Director of Information Resources, Collections, and Scholarly Communications. In this newly created role, Mr. Cherubini will build on SOLINET's solid reputation within the information industry by directing and managing the overall framework guiding SOLINET's offerings of collections-related products and services.

A 20 year veteran in the library industry, Mr. Cherubini brings to SOLINET member libraries a wealth of knowledge in the areas of collection management, digitization, open access, and scholarly communication. In addition to providing the vision for collections initiatives, including educational opportunities and guiding members and partners on scholarly communication, Mr. Cherubini will also share valuable industry insights on SOLINET's blog and in a regular column in SOLINET's quarterly newsletter, Solutions.

Her areas of expertise include vendor negotiation, integrated library systems and project management.

STATE NEWS

FLORIDA

The State Library and Archives of Florida announced that the University of Central Florida (UCF) Libraries' Central Florida Memory (CFM) project "Picturing the Past: Photographs and Postcards of Central Florida" was awarded one of the 2008-2009 Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) grants in the amount of $52,002. The grant will be used to build upon the successful Central Florida Memory project (<http://cfmemory.org>) which is the work of a consortium of regional historical societies and libraries, including the UCF Libraries' four partners in the grant: Museum of Seminole County History, Orange County Library System, Orange County Regional History Center, and Rollins College Olin Library. This year CFM welcomes two more partners: Stetson University's duPont Ball Library and Bethune Cookman University's Carl S. Swisher Library.

Central Florida Memory was created to provide access to library, museum, historical society, and archival content in Central Florida; produce an extensive digital resource for scholars, students, teachers, genealogists, residents, visitors,
