Mr. Mayes studies viola with Catherine Lynn.

Kyle Mayes is currently attending Kennesaw State University as he works toward degrees in music performance and computer science. He is taught by Catherine Lynn, Assistant Principal Viola of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra. Kyle attended the Brevard Music Center during the summer of 2012. He has performed in solo masterclasses for Victoria Chiang (Aspen Trio), Phillip Ying (Ying Quartet), Lachlan McBane and Jessica Oudin (Atlanta Symphony).

Kyle has played with several chamber groups at Kennesaw State University and has performed in chamber masterclasses for the Pacifica Quartet, Ying Quartet, and the Aspen Trio. Kyle holds a principal position in the KSU Symphony Orchestra and with the orchestra has travelled to China for a three concert tour including a concert at the Beijing Central Conservatory. Kyle has performed with the Georgia Symphony Orchestra and the Georgia Philharmonic.

Welcome to the Kennesaw State University School of Music

The School of Music at KSU has dedicated, vibrant, and talented faculty and staff that are completely devoted to teaching, performing, scholarship, and serving our community. It is an incredibly exciting place to study, boasting state-of-the-art facilities with opportunities to produce and explore music in a dynamic place that is ahead of the curve for what it means to be a musician in the 21st century. Our students come from the leading musical honor organizations across the region and are poised to lead the cultural offerings and musical education in our area and beyond for years to come.

We welcome you to attend a concert, meet our faculty and staff, and feel the energy and excitement that our students exude. We are fully committed to our purpose as educators, performers, and scholars. We hope that you will find as much enjoyment in our product as we do in producing it. Welcome!
