Editorial Policy
Members of the Society of Georgia Archivists and others with professional interest in the aims of the society are invited to submit manuscripts for consideration to Provenance. Manuscripts and related correspondence should be addressed to Editor Heather Oswald (provenance@soga.org). Review materials and related correspondence should be sent to Reviews Editor Jennifer M. Welch (welchje@musc.edu). The Editorial Board appraises submitted manuscripts in terms of appropriateness, scholarly worth, and clarity of writing. Contributors should not submit manuscripts simultaneously for publication in any other journal. Only manuscripts that have not been previously published will be accepted, and authors must agree not to publish elsewhere, without explicit written permission, a paper submitted to and accepted by Provenance. Two complimentary copies of Provenance will be provided to all authors. For additional information visit: http://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/provenance/.

Information for Contributors
Letters to the editor that include pertinent and constructive comments or criticisms of articles or reviews recently published by Provenance are welcome. Ordinarily, such letters should not exceed 300 words. Manuscripts should be submitted as Word documents. Text, references, and footnotes should conform to copyright regulations and to accepted scholarly standards. Provenance uses The Chicago Manual of Style 16th edition as its style standard. Use of terms which have special meaning for archivists, manuscript curators, and records managers should conform to the definitions in Richard Pearce-Moses, ed., A Glossary of Archival and Records Terminology accessible at http://www.archivists.org/glossary/.
