Cajun Folk Songs II - Frank Ticheli

Cajun Folk Songs II and the earlier Cajun Folk Songs were inspired by folk melodies whose precise origins are unknown. The melodies are freely combined with original music. Both movements consist of an introduction followed by a ternary form. Both folksongs also occur in the following sources: folksong #1, as sung by Bee Deshotels (Arhoolie CD 359); folksong #2, as sung by "Blind Uncle Gaspard" (Ann Savoy: Cajun Music, A Reflection of a People, 1984). The piece was commissioned by the Indiana All-state Band, and premiered by them in March 1997, conducted by Allan McMurray.

Rocky Point Holiday - Ron Nelson

Ron Nelson wrote his first composition at age six and began studying piano that same year. He taught himself to play string bass in order to play in the Joliet Township High School band. The director, Bruce Houseknecht, encouraged him to compose, so Dr. Nelson wrote a twenty-two minute concerto for piano and symphonic band, which he performed at age seventeen. He studied composition at the Eastman School of Music with Howard Hanson and Bernard Rogers. Rocky Point Holiday was Ron Nelson’s first major work for wind band. Commissioned in 1969 by Frank Bencriscutto, it was written for the University of Minnesota Concert Band’s Russian tour. Frank wanted an "Americana" piece to open the program. Nelson wrote this while on vacation at Rocky Point - a favorite seaside resort in Rhode Island, which has since closed.

The composer writes:
I came from huge, William Revelli-style bands in high school and had that sound in my ear. Then I got to The Eastman School of Music and heard this very tight, sinewy sound in the form for the Eastman Wind Ensemble under Frederick Fennell. This sound was seeping into my musical consciousness, and it was not until I got away from it that I realized how important this experience was. Rocky Point Holiday is a pivotal moment in my notion of wind ensemble scoring, in which I focused on orchestrating in an extremely transparent way.

Black Dog - Scott McAllister

The composer writes:
Black Dog is a rhapsody for solo clarinet and wind ensemble. The work is inspired by classic hard rock music, particularly Led Zeppelin’s rhapsodic-style song Black Dog. The clarinet solo takes the role of the lead singer in a hard rock band with its extreme range

David Thomas Kehler - conductor

As Director of Bands at Kennesaw State University, David Thomas Kehler oversees all aspects of the university’s band program while teaching courses in instrumental conducting. Kehler recently served the University of Texas at Austin as a Graduate Conducting Associate, where he received a Doctor of Musical Arts degree. He wrote his dissertation on the wind music of Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Michael Colgrass. He earned his Master of Music and Bachelor of Music degrees at Michigan State University.

In addition to his Austin appointment, Dr. Kehler also served America’s Premier Windband, The Dallas Wind Symphony, as Associate Conductor where he was coordinator and conductor of the Dallas Wind Symphony International Fanfare Project. Under his direction, they received literally hundreds of fanfares from all over the world for its annual call for fanfares competition. In addition, Dr. Kehler conducted the Dallas Wind Symphony at various community and civic events throughout Texas. Included in these events were holiday concerts, various Chautauqua Festivals, the annual Labor Day Concert at the Dallas Arboretum, and a formal gala presented by the United States Armed Forces with all of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in attendance.

Dr. Kehler was also Founder and Conductor of the GDYO Wind Symphony, an ensemble affiliated with the Greater Dallas Youth Orchestras, Inc. During his ten years of service, the GDYO Wind Symphony established itself as one of the premier youth wind ensembles in the United States. They were a featured ensemble at the Texas Bandmasters Association/National Band Association Convention in San Antonio, Texas, and were heard internationally on “From the Top”, a syndicated radio program featuring the finest young classical musicians in the country. In addition, the GDYO Wind Symphony participated in exchange concerts with the Atlanta Youth Wind Symphony and performed with Jeff Nelson, former horn of the Canadian Brass. In the summer of 2008, the GDYO Wind Symphony embarked on an extensive two-week tour of China, performing at the music conservatories of...
Ted Gurch — clarinet soloist

Ted Gurch is Associate Principal/E-flat Clarinetist with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, a position he has held since 1989. Prior to coming to Atlanta, he served for three seasons as Principal Clarinetist with the Mississippi Symphony Orchestra. He attended the Eastman School of Music where he studied with Stanley Hasty and Charles Neidich, earning a Bachelor’s Degree and the Performer’s Certificate. While at Eastman he was active as a saxophonist in the school’s jazz program, and was a member of the award-winning Eastman Jazz Ensemble. He continues to play saxophone on jazz, pop and classical programs, and has appeared as a concerto soloist with the ASO on saxophone as well as clarinet. An active chamber musician, he is a member of the Georgia Tech based contemporary music ensemble Sonic Generator, as well as Bent Frequency, a new music ensemble based at Georgia State. He is an Artist in Residence at Kennesaw State University, an Artist Affiliate at Emory University and coaches the clarinet section of the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra.

John Culvahouse — conductor

John N. Culvahouse is Professor of Instrumental Music Education at Kennesaw State University. From 1991 until 2007, he served on the faculty at the University of Georgia, where he was a tenured Associate Professor of Music and a member of the graduate faculty. Prior to his appointment at UGA, Dr. Culvahouse taught in the public schools in South Carolina and Tennessee for 17 years where he directed high school, middle school and elementary school bands. He received Bachelor and Master of Music Education degrees from the University of Tennessee and a Doctor of Musical Arts in Conducting from the University of South Carolina. Mentors and major professors include Stanley Barnes, WJ Julian, William J. Moody and James Copenhaver.

Dr. Culvahouse has served as a conductor, adjudicator and clinician in several states, Canada and Western Europe. Professional affiliations include Georgia Music Educators Association, Music Educators National Conference, East Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia (Former Epsilon Lambda Chapter Advisor), Phi Beta Mu (Tennessee Chapter Past-President and South Carolina Chapter Past-Vice-President), Pi Kappa Lambda, Kappa Kappa Psi (Honorary) and the National Band Association where he has served on the Board of Directors on four occasions. As a long time NBA member, he conducted bands at the 1980, 1988 and 1994 conventions, including a 1988 performance by the Sumter, South Carolina High School Symphonic Band. His NBA service began as Tennessee State Chair in the late 1970s and continued as he became an elected High School Representative, elected Representative-At-Large, Southern Division and emotions juxtaposed with pyrotechnic solos in true “Hendrix” fashion. The rhapsody begins with a long solo cadenza, which introduces most of the material in the work. The middle section is a very slow, upward, “Stairway to Heaven” gesture. The last section of Black Dog concludes with a head-banging ostinato pattern that leads to the final fiery cadenza.

Funeral Music for Queen Mary - Henry Purcell, transcribed and elaborated by Steven Stucky

The composer writes:

It was at the suggestion of Esa-Pekka Salonen that I transcribed this music of Purcell for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra. I used three of the pieces heard at the funeral of Mary II of England, who died of smallpox on 28 December 1694: a solemn march, the anthem “In the Midst of Life We Are in Death,” and a canzona in imitative polyphonic style. In working on the project I did not try to achieve a pure, musicological reconstruction but, on the contrary, to regard Purcell's music, which I love deeply, through the lens of three hundred intervening years. Thus, although most of this version is straightforward orchestration of the Purcell originals, there are moments when Purcell drifts out of focus. My version was first performed in Los Angeles on 6 February 1992.

Danza Final from Estancia - Alberto Ginastera, trans. David John

The ballet Estancia, from the pen of Argentina’s Alberto Ginastera, is much like an American western except, of course, for the South American setting. Cowboys are called Gauchos and the old homestead is known as the estancia. When gauchos had a difference of opinion, they didn’t settle it with a shoot-out; they held a malambo – a dance competition, which incorporated shows of strength, endurance and skills with the lasso. Danza Final from Estancia is the final showdown in one of these competitions.
