You Belong @ your Library Photo Contest Announced

The photo contest first launched in 2010 is back! The Georgia Library Quarterly is encouraging library supporters to show they belong at their library – the theme of the 2012 National Library Week that occurred in the Spring. A grand prize of $100 for “Best Overall” and 1st Runner-Up prize of $50 are up for grabs.

Photos must represent a Georgia library and be taken by a Georgia resident. Photos of public, private, academic, school and special libraries are eligible.

All photos must be a minimum size of 4-by-6 inches with a minimum resolution of 180 pixels per inch. Larger sizes and higher resolutions are welcome, but the maximum acceptable file size is 10 MB. One entry per person per category is allowed. Each photo must be submitted separately in JPEG format to photocontest@georgialibraries.org by noon on Friday, November 30. A panel of judges will select the winners representing each of the 9 categories following the contest’s end. Winners will be notified by email. The winners will be announced and the winning photos from each category will be featured In the GLQ Winter 2013 issue.

Categories are:

- Child reading
- Young adult reading
- Adult reading
- Technology use in libraries
- Library-sponsored or Friends-sponsored event
- Library advocacy/support in action
- Library employee, friend, or volunteer
- Exterior photo of a library
- Interior photo of a library

Judges will select one photo from the category winners as "best overall" and GLA will award its photographer with the grand prize of $100 and $50 to the first runner-up, and each will receive a certificate. Winners from the remaining categories will also receive a certificate.

A full list of rules and the required model release form are available for download from http://gla.georgialibraries.org/photo_contest.htm.
