DR. LESLIE BLACKWELL
Director of Choral Activities

Leslie J. Blackwell has been the director of Choral Activities and Assistant Professor of Music and Music Education at Kennesaw State University since 1998. Dr. Blackwell's duties include conducting all the choral ensembles, teaching choral conducting, choral literature, and supervising student teachers. Choral ensembles at Kennesaw State University include the Chamber Singers, Chorale, Women's Chorus, and the Quarter Tones, a men's ensemble. Professor Blackwell earned her AD from Gordon College, her BM in music education from West Georgia College, her MM from Georgia State University and her DMA at the University of Kentucky.

JOSEPH ELLER
Assistant Professor of Clarinet

Assistant Professor of Clarinet, Joseph Eller, is currently in his fifth year at Kennesaw State University. Along with his clarinet studio position, he is coordinator of the undergraduate chamber music program and a member of the music theory faculty. He is also in his sixth season as principal clarinetist of the Cobb Symphony Orchestra. A native of Ypsilanti, Michigan, Mr. Eller received a Bachelor of Music degree in performance from Eastern Michigan University. He received his masters in performance from Louisiana State University. Mr. Eller worked toward a Doctorate of Musical Arts degree at both LSU and the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore.
