Fall Into the Arts Series – Carmen Deedy

Award Winning Children’s Author Carmen Deedy appeared at the Lawrenceville branch of the Gwinnett County Public Library Saturday, September 29th, to greet fans and promote her newest book Return of the Library Dragon. This meet and greet was part of the Library’s Fall Into the Arts program series and a kids’ component of the Gwinnett Reads tradition.

Carmen Agra Deedy has been writing for children for over two decades. Born in Havana, Cuba, she came to the U.S. as a refugee in 1964, and grew up in Decatur, Georgia, where she lives today. The first book in this series, The Library Dragon, received children’s state book awards. In 2003 the book was her home state’s choice to represent Georgia at the Library of Congress’s National Book Festival.

Fall Into the Arts Series – Keynote Speaker and 2012 Gwinnett Reads Author

Pulitzer Prize winner and the Poet Laureate of the United States, Natasha Trethewey was this year’s Gwinnett Reads author and keynote speaker for Fall Into the Arts 2012. Her work combines free verse with more traditional forms like the sonnet and the villanelle to explore memory and the racial legacy of America. Her newest book, Thrall, will be release this fall.

Poet Natasha Trethewey was born in Gulfport, Mississippi. She has written three collections of poetry: Domestic Work (Graywolf Press, 2000), Bellocq’s Ophelia (Graywolf, 2002), and Native Guard (Houghton Mifflin, 2006), for which she was awarded the 2007 Pulitzer Prize. She is also the author of a book of creative non-fiction, Beyond Katrina: A Meditation on the Mississippi Gulf Coast (Georgia, 2010).

Trethewey has been the recipient of other awards including the inaugural 1999 Cave Canem poetry prize, and the 2003 Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters Book Prize. She was a finalist for both the Academy of American Poets’ James Laughlin and Lenore Marshall prizes, and was named a 2003 Notable Book by the American Library Association. Her work has appeared in several volumes of Best American Poetry, and in journals such as American Poetry Review, Kenyon Review, New England Review, and The Southern Review, among others.

Altered Book Contest

More than 40 stunning creations submitted to the Gwinnett County Public Library’s Altered Book contest, as well as the highly imaginative Pulp Fashion pieces featured at Duluth’s Barefoot in the Park festival, were on display at the Hudgens Center for the Arts beginning in June. The public was invited to celebrate the opening of these and other exhibits at the June 9th reception, hosted by the Hudgens.

During the reception, winners of the Library’s Altered Book Contest were announced, and prizes were awarded to first place entries of both the Adult and Student categories. The First Place prize for the Adult category was a $100 gift card donated by the Georgia United Credit Union, and the First Place prize for the Student Category was a Nook eReader courtesy of Garden Plaza.

“The exhibit at the Hudgens promises to be an extraordinary display of innovative designs and delightful surprises,” explains Gwinnett County Public Library Executive Director Nancy Stanbery-Kellam. “We have had over 40 submissions for the Altered Books Contest, and 14 Pulp Fashions created for ‘Barefoot’—each piece a unique expression that uses print material in a new way. That they can be enjoyed by the public in one exhibit and supported by generous donors like the Georgia United Credit Union and Garden Plaza is such a special opportunity for our community.”

Karin Slaughter Supports Book Fair

Karin Slaughter, bestselling author and library advocate, appeared after a Curious George themed story time for Barnes and Noble’s two-day Bookfair at the Forum on Peachtree Parkway to benefit the Gwinnett County Public Library on Saturday, July 7th. Customers at the Norcross store browsed, enjoyed stories, and signed-up for the library’s Summer Reading Program, as well as benefiting the library with their purchases during the fair.

“We are very grateful that Karin is such a vocal and caring advocate for libraries,” says Gwinnett County Public Library Executive Director Nancy Stanbery-Kellam. “Barnes and Noble has presented us with a fantastic opportunity to reach customers who want to support us while enjoying a day of fun for the whole family.”

Karin Slaughter is the New York Times and number-one-internationally-bestselling author of twelve thrillers, including Fallen, Broken, Undone, Fractured, Beyond Reach, Triptych, and Faithless. She is a native of Georgia and a dedicated supporter of public libraries. Karin discussed and signed her new book, Criminal, at this event cosponsored by Barnes & Noble and Gwinnett County Public Library.

New York Times Bestselling Author Stuart Woods in "Lunch & Listen" Series Luncheon

On September 26th the Gwinnett County Public Library hosted an upscale weekday luncheon with New York Times bestselling author of twenty five novels Stuart Woods as he embarked on his national book tour to promote his newest novel Severe Clear, and his memoir, Blue Water, Green Skipper.

An amazingly prolific author, Stuart Woods has written dozens of compelling thrillers, juggling stand-alone novels with four successful series. His most popular protagonists are New York cop-turned-attorney Stone Barrington, introduced in 1991’s New York Dead, and plucky Florida police chief Holly Barker, who debuted in 1998's Orchid Beach.

His pleasing mix of high-octane action, likable characters, and sly, subversive humor has made him a hit with millions of readers who have returned the favor by consistently propelling his books to the top of the bestseller lists. Mr. Woods won the Edgar Award for Chiefs, 1981 and the Grand Prix de Littérature Policière for Imperfect Strangers in 1995.

The “Lunch & Listen” series is a new way to bring authors and readers together, providing the ultimate food for thought with a wide range of authors -- from bestselling mystery writers, to award-winning regional novelists to nonfiction and cookbook authors.
