Kennesaw State University Wind Ensemble

Formed in 1996, the Kennesaw State University Wind Ensemble performs a diverse repertoire for winds and percussion encompassing chamber music, wind ensemble repertoire, and works for large bands. Regularly the KSU Wind Ensemble is visited by leading composers, performers, and conductors. Recent visits include those by The Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet, Quartetto Gelato, The Detroit Chamber Winds and Strings, The Atlanta Percussion Trio, composers Jennifer Higdon, David Maslanka, Charles Young, and Eric Ewazen, conductors H. Robert Reynolds, James Jordan, and Alexander Mickelthwate, and principal chairs of the world class orchestras in Berlin, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, and Atlanta.

Committed to collaboration, the KSU Wind Ensemble has given joint concerts with bands and wind ensembles at Emory University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia Perimeter College, Harrison High School, and at Reinhardt College's Falany Performing Arts Center. In January of 2005, the Wind Ensemble performed in Savannah, Georgia as part of the 2005 Georgia Music Educators Association In-Service.

Many members of the KSU Wind Ensemble come from the distinguished high school programs and honors ensembles including The Atlanta Youth Wind Symphony, The Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra and The Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra. While several KSU Wind Ensemble members have continued their studies at leading music schools like Juilliard, The University of Michigan, Northwestern University, The New England Conservatory, Indiana University, and Roosevelt University, other graduates are offered positions as music educators throughout the state of Georgia. Additionally, since 1999, KSU Wind Ensemble musicians have earned 81 positions in The National Wind Ensemble for performances in Carnegie Hall.
