Program

I

Vittoria, mio core!

Giacomo Carissimi
(1605-1674)

Lasciatemi morire!

Claudio Monteverdi
(1567-1643)

Bois épais

Jean-Baptiste Lully
(1632-1687)

II

Rastlose Liebe

Franz Schubert
(1797-1828)

*With the snow, the rain, the wind against me, in the misty chasms, through foggy vapors, ever onward! Ever onward! How am I to escape?
Crown of life, happiness, without repose, love, this is what you are!*

Die Lotosblume

Robert Schumann
(1810-1856)

The lotus blossom is afraid of the splendor of the sun and with bowed head in reverie awaits the night. She blooms and glows with radiance, gazing silently above, fragrant, yet weeping and trembling with love and the pain of love.

Du bist wie eine blume

You are like a flower so gentle, fair and pure; I gaze at you, and sadness creeps into my heart.

III

Extase

Henry Duparc
(1848-1933)

Upon a pale lily my heart sleeps in a drowsiness, peaceful as death... an exquisite death, a death scented with the beloved's breath.

Avant de quitter ces lieux from Faust

Charles Gounod
(1818-1893)

Marguerite's brother Valentine is departing for the wars. He leaves his sister in the care of a friend, and sings a song of farewell.

IV

The Rovin' Gambler

John Jacob Niles
(1892-1980)

Gambler, don't you lose your place

The Gambler's Wife (By-low)

Mr. White is in the voice studio of Dr. Oral Moses.
