About the KSU Wind Ensemble

Formed in 1996, the Kennesaw State University Wind Ensemble performs a diverse repertoire for winds and percussion encompassing chamber music, wind ensemble repertoire, and works for large bands. Regularly the KSU Wind Ensemble is visited by leading composers, performers, and conductors. Recent visits include those by The American Horn Quartet, The Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet, Quartetto Gelato, The Detroit Chamber Winds and Strings, The Atlanta Percussion Trio, composers Jennifer Higdon, David Maslanka, Charles Young, and Eric Ewazen, conductors H. Robert Reynolds, James Jordan, and Alexander Mickelthwate, and principal chairs of the world class orchestras in Berlin, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, and Atlanta. Committed to collaboration, the KSU Wind Ensemble has given joint concerts with bands and wind ensembles at Emory University, Georgia Institute of Technology, Georgia Perimeter College, Harrison High School, and at Reinhardt College's Falany Performing Arts Center and Brenau University's Pearce Auditorium. Additionally, the KSU Wind Ensemble recently performed in Savannah, Georgia as part of the 2005 Georgia Music Educators Association In-Service.

Many members of the KSU Wind Ensemble come from the distinguished high school programs and honors ensembles including The Atlanta Youth Wind Symphony, The Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestra and The Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra. While several KSU Wind Ensemble members have continued their studies at leading music schools like Juilliard, The University of Michigan, Northwestern University, The New England Conservatory, Indiana University, and Roosevelt University, other graduates are offered positions as music educators throughout the state of Georgia. Additionally, since 1999, KSU Wind Ensemble musicians have earned 90 positions in The National Wind Ensemble for performances in Carnegie Hall.

About our Conductor

Raised in Atlanta's arts and education communities, Peter Witte is Chair of the Department of Music and Director of Instrumental Studies at Kennesaw State University. Conductor of the KSU Wind Ensemble since 1997 prior to his return to Atlanta, Mr. Witte held a conducting position at Gettysburg College.

Recently, Mr. Witte led performances in Carnegie Hall of the National University Wind Ensemble and the National High School Wind Ensemble. In 2005, Mr. Witte concluded a seven-year tenure as Music Director and Conductor of the Atlanta Wind Symphony, again in Carnegie Hall, with a joint concert shared with the Metropolitan Atlanta Youth Wind Ensemble. Mr. Witte has conducted performances at the University of Michigan, the Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music, Georgia State University, and with the Cobb Symphony Orchestra and the Third Army Ground Forces Band. An alumnus of the Brevard Music Center and the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra, he currently serves as an advisor to the Cobb Symphony Orchestra, on the board of directors at First Montessori of Atlanta, and as an "Arts Leader of Metro Atlanta" with the Metro Atlanta Arts & Culture Coalition. Mr. Witte is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he studied conducting with H. Robert Reynolds.

Music at KSU

The Wind Ensemble is one part of a comprehensive undergraduate music program at Kennesaw State University. KSU's thriving student ensembles also include the KSU Orchestra, Chamber Singers and Chorale, Jazz Ensemble, Opera/Musical Theatre productions, Chamber Music program and the KSU Pep Band. Student enrollment in these ensembles has risen 270% since 1997.

The orchestral program under the direction of Michael Alexander performs a broad repertoire of symphonic, concerto, oratorio, and operatic repertoire. The jazz program, led by Sam Skelton, combines big band and combo performances with classes in improvisation. Opera/Musical Theatre productions, guided by Russell Young, are staged each year and include such titles as Puccini's Gianmme Schicchi, Menotti's The Old Maid and the Thief, Bernstein's Candide, and musical theatre titles such as Sweeney Todd and Pippin. The choral program, guided by Leslie Blackwell, includes the KSU Chamber Singers, an ensemble recently invited to perform at the 2006 Georgia Music Educators Association In-Service. KSU's distinguished instrumental faculty collaborate as coaches to support a vibrant student chamber music program. To affirm the focus upon chamber music, each semester KSU's two resident ensembles, the Atlanta Symphony Brass Quintet and the Atlanta Percussion Trio, join an increasingly active faculty ensemble, the Kennesaw Chamber Players, to give full recitals, lectures, and teach masterclasses. Finally, KSU's 2004 NCAA Division II Championship Basketball season provided the ideal launch for KSU's athletic bands.

KSU presents more than 150 musical performances each year. As one of three units in the College of the Arts, the music program collaborates with KSU's nationally accredited programs in Visual Arts and Theatre and Performance Studies to sustain a culture where breadth and depth meet rigor and joy.

Arts at KSU

Attracting 700 students in Music, Theatre and Performance Studies, and Visual Arts, Kennesaw State University's College of the Arts is one of the fastest growing programs on campus. Launched in 1998 under the stewardship of Dear Joseph Meeks, the College of the Arts' programs in Music, Theatre and Performance Studies, and Visual Arts recently became the first university in Metropolitan Atlanta to earn national accreditation in music, theatre, and visual arts.

COTA is committed to relationships that place students and faculty in the community as artists, teachers, and leaders. Through its Annual Benefit Gala, the College has raised more than $500,000 for scholarships and student-learning initiatives since 2002. The College recently launched a capital campaign to build new arts facilities and to enhance existing ones. In spring of 2006, the College will begin construction on a new 680-seat performance hall. Future projects include construction of an art museum to house the College's $4 million permanent collection of art, currently numbering more than 400 pieces.
