Johann Wolfgang Goethe once wrote, “Only with you, Hâfez, do I wish to compete, for the older you get the younger you become... And religion is no obstacle, for if the word ‘Islam’ means to submit to God, we all live and die in Islam.”

Khwajeh Shams al-Din Muhammad Hâfez-e Shirazi (ca. 1320-1390) was born in Shiraz, Persia (Iran). He wrote nearly 400 lyric poems, called ghazals, and is the undisputed master of that particular poetic form. His mystical writing is based on Sufism, a tradition of Islam that is associated both with the Sunni and Shi’a denominations, as well as many other currents of Islam.

I was particularly drawn to these four ghazals because of the elegant way they depict longing... longing for Truth, longing for Reason, longing for Kindness, Love, and – always – longing for the Beloved. Also, as I was reading, I found that many of Hâfez’s poems seem to have in common beautiful metaphors of transience: fire, breath, breeze.

Above all, I have tried desperately to remain true to the intonation of the language, and to Hâfez’s poetic instinct. Each poem unfortunately had to be shortened to create a concert piece, but I encourage anyone to seek out the original poems in their entirety. Special thanks to my friend Behrooz Alavi for his insights into Hâfez’s poetry, its pronunciation, and its rich performance practice.

The music is my own, and not authentically Persian. It is my interpretation of an assortment of influences, including my study of Persian speech, scales and modes, but perhaps also from my distant memory of being four years old and dancing – joyfully and tirelessly – with my Greek relatives to music that whirled feverishly around me.

Tres Canciones de los Elementos | Victor Johnson

I. Escuchar al Viento
Escuchar al viento
soplando por la noche,
respirar la paz para todos.

Listen to the wind,
blowing through the night,
breathing peace to all.

II. La lluvia está cayendo
La lluvia está cayendo,
sobre la tierra cayendo.

The rain is falling,
falling over the earth.

III. ¡Fuego!
¡Fuego!
Vea el resplandor rojo.
Vea la llama naranja!

Fire!
See the red glow.
See the orange flame!

Chantez a Dieu | Eleanor Daley

Chantez à Dieu chanson nouvelle,
Chantez, ô terre universelle,
Chantez, et son Nom bénissez.
Et de jour en jour annoncez

Sing unto God a new song,
Sing unto God all the earth,
Sing and bless His holy name.
Yea from day to day tell of His
salvation,
and His wonders to all people.

From Behind the Caravan: Songs of Hâfez | Abbie Betinis

We Have Come
Mâ, be-din dar, na pey-e heshmato
jâh... âmade-'im;
az-bad-e hâdese, 'injâ, be-panâh,
âmade-'im.

We, to this door, seeking neither pride nor glory... we have come.
For shelter from ill-luck, here...
we have come.
Rahro-e manzel-e 'eshqimo ze sarhadde 'adam, tâ, be-eqlim-e vojud, in-hame râh... âmade-'im.

Traveling along love's journey, from the borders of nothingness, Now into states of being, all this way... we have come.

Langar-e helm-e to, ey kashti-ye tofiqə, kojâst? ke, dar in bahr-e karam, qarq-e gonâh... âmade-'im.

O ship of grace, where is thy anchor of forbearance? For in this ocean of generosity, immersed in sin... we have come.

Hâfez, in kherqe-ye pashmine byandâza, ke mâ az-pe-ye qâfele, bâ-'âtash-e 'âh... âmade-'im!

Hâfez, throw off your woolen kherqe [Sufi cloak], for we, from behind the caravan, with the fire of sighing "ah!"... we have come.

Suffer No Grief

Yusof-e gom-gashte bâz-âyad be Kan'ân. Qam ma-khor. Kolbe-ye ahzân shavad, ruzi, golestân. Qam ma-khor...

Joseph, forsaken, shall return to Canaan. Suffer no grief. From the thorny stalks of family grief, one day, a rose garden. Suffer no grief...

Dar-biábân, gar, be-shoq-e Ka'be, khâhi zad qadam, sar-zanesh-hâ, gar konad khâr-e moqilân, Qam ma-khor...

If you desire the Way and plant your pilgrim foot in the desert, then if the mighty Arabian thorn makes reproofs, Suffer no grief...

Lost Mountain Middle School Choral Department

The Seventh Grade Chorus and Eighth Grade Chorus are not auditioned groups. The Lost Mountain Middle School Eighth Grade Chorus has given performances at 2010 GMEA Statewide In-Service Conference. In 2012, Lost Mountain was one of three choirs invited to sing at the Inaugural Georgia State University Mid-Sing-Fest. In 2013, the Eighth Grade Chorus was invited to serve as the guest artist and workshop chorus at the University of South Carolina Invitational Choral Workshop. In 2015, the Seventh Grade Chorus was one of two choirs invited to participate in the inaugural Lovett School Invitational Choral Festival.

The choral department has been under the direction of Jay Champion since 1998. Originally, the Lost Mountain Middle School choral program only offered chorus as a regularly scheduled class to about 30 eighth graders. Since then, chorus has been offered to all three grade levels since 2002 and currently has a membership of over 200 students with three additional auxiliary ensembles: Boys Choir, Girls Choir, and Chamber Choir. During this time, the choral department has produced dozens of honor chorus and all-state singers, and several music performance and music education majors.

The students in this choir were previously taught by Craig Hurley at Ford Elementary, Justin Duff at Due West Elementary, Jennifer Mascheri at Kemp Elementary, and Larry Drawdy at Vaughan Elementary. These students will go on to attend Harrison High School and Hillgrove High School.

JAY CHAMPION, Conductor of Lost Mountain MS Choirs

Jay Champion has taught chorus, general music, and electronic music composition at Lost Mountain Middle School in Kennesaw since 1998. He is sought after as a clinician, guest conductor, music technology instructor, composer and arranger. Recognized as a leader in the use of technology in the music classroom, Mr. Champion has taught professional courses and presented at state and national conventions. In its short history, the Electronic Music Club at Lost Mountain, a digital music composition studio, has garnered much attention. The ensemble has performed joint concerts in Kennesaw and Birmingham with the Computer Music Ensemble at the University of Alabama at Birmingham.
Mr. Champion received a Bachelor Degrees in Music Education as a voice major and Music Composition from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge. He earned his Master's Degree in Music Education, and Education Specialist Degree at the University of Georgia. He has performed and recorded with the LSU A Cappella Choir, the Moses Hogan Chorale, and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra Chorus and Chamber Chorus, and Coro Vocati.

Mr. Champion has enjoyed success in a wide variety of areas of composition and music production. He has written countless arrangements for string quartets, choirs, and orchestras. In 2002, Mr. Champion arranged and produced and performed on the soundtrack to Daryl Hury's one-man theater production of 2001 Reasons to Live, working with some of the best rock musicians in Atlanta. His music was recently performed by Cantamos! at the Robert Ferst Center for the Arts and Georgia Tech University, and by the Lost Mountain Middle School Chamber Orchestra at the GMEA Convention in Savannah. He lives in Marietta with his wife Evelyn, his sons David, Charlie, and Sam, and his father, Albert.

ALISON MANN, Associate Professor of Choral Music Education, Program Coordinator for Music Education

Alison Mann is Associate Professor of Choral Music Education and Program Coordinator for Music Education at Kennesaw State University, where she teaches coursework in Choral Methods, Foundations of Music Education, and Vocal Pedagogy for Ensemble Singing. Mann also supervises student teachers, coordinates edTPA, and serves as Conductor of the KSU Women’s Choir.

A native of Florida, Mann taught in the Orlando public schools as director of choral activities at William R. Boone High School and was also the assistant conductor of the Orlando Chorale. While in Orlando, choirs and soloists under her direction received top honors at the district and state levels.

Dr. Mann received her Ph.D. in Music Education and Choral Conducting from the University of Oregon, and a Masters of Choral Music Education and Bachelors of Choral Music Education from Florida State University. Dr. Mann has studied conducting and music education with André Thomas, Kevin Fenton, Sharon J. Paul, and Judy Bowers. Dr. Mann is currently the Southern Division ACDA Women’s Choir Repertoire and Standards chair, and the Georgia state ACDA Membership Chair. She serves on the executive planning committee for the Southern Division American Choral Directors Association. Additionally, Mann has served as the ACDA Multicultural and Ethics Repertoire and Standards Chair for the states of Georgia and Oregon and the Georgia Women’s Choir Repertoire and Standards Chair.

The KSU Women’s Choir has performed on numerous occasions with the KSU Symphony Orchestra, and performed the world premiere of Nico Muhly’s composition, “How Soon” with Grammy award-winning ensemble, eighth blackbird. Additionally, they have pariticipated in the ACDA Women’s Choir Consortium and premiered new works for the past four seasons. In 2014, they were selected to perform at the GMEA In-Service Conference in Savannah. Her professional affiliations include the American Choral Directors Association, National Association for Music Education, Georgia Music Educators Association, National Collegiate Choral Organization, and the International Society for Music Education. Her research has been presented at the state, regional, and international levels. Dr. Mann is an active conductor, clinician, and adjudicator.

Welcome to the Bailey Performance Center. We are thrilled that you are here!

The School of Music at Kennesaw State University is an exciting place to live, work and learn. Housed in the College of the Arts, the School is infused with masterfully skilled and dedicated performing teachers who care deeply about their profession, our programs, our community, and every student involved in music and the arts. This Performance Center is the jewel in our crown! We are so excited about the musical and artistic events that happen here, and we are excited that you are here with us to enjoy them! The School of Music is busy preparing our students to be productive artists. We want them to be accomplished and creative leaders of the arts world of tomorrow, professionals who are diversely trained and well-practiced. Diverse in their backgrounds, our students hail from many of the leading musical arts and honors organizations from across the Southeast, and as a School of Music, we are dedicated to the purpose of furthering the arts and cultural offerings to our region and beyond.

Please take a look through our program book and notice those who advertise with us. They support us financially and help make this performance possible. I know that they will appreciate your patronage and support! Also, please note our Name a Seat Campaign listed within this program book. In preparation of our tenth anniversary, we have established a goal of naming 100 seats. Perhaps there is someone you would like to see honored in this way!

I look forward to a long and rewarding relationship with you. With your continued support of music and the arts, there is nothing that we cannot accomplish together!
