KSU's Lawrence V. Johnson Library, Marietta Campus, received its first endowment, a $30,000 gift from Jane and Ralph Johnson, the son of the library's namesake. Lawrence (Larry)

V. Johnson served as the first director of The Technical Institute, a two-year technical college, which has evolved into the KSU Marietta Campus.

“When the library was named in honor of my dad, I thought it would be appropriate to also establish a program that would provide funding for library documents, magazines or other publications or activities that might not be covered by the normal budgets,” said Johnson. “This gift will help to keep our collections up to date and enhance student learning,” said KSU Dean of Library Services David Evans.
