program notes

Based on the tragic love story from Virgil's The Aeneid, composer Henry Purcell's setting of Dido & Aeneas (1689) masterfully epitomizes the dramatic and musical height of opera in the Baroque period – making it one of the most beloved of all English operas.

The remarkable intensity of Nahum Tate's libretto references classical and mythological characters such as:

- Dido (Elissa), founder and first Queen of Carthage (Tunisia, North Africa)
- Diana, goddess of the hunt and slayer of Acteon
- Anchises (a mortal) and goddess Venus, the troubled parents of Aeneas
- Phoebe, goddess of the moon's gilded rays
- Jove, king of the gods
- Mercury, the winged messenger of the gods
- Aeneas, warrior and prince instructed by Mercury to found the new Troy (Rome)
- Cupid and Fate, who orchestrate the lovers' demise

Because the potent drama found in Dido & Aeneas transcends time, interpretations of this opera have varied from the classic Baroque operatic form to Greco-Roman myth, fantastical kingdoms, and even insane asylums. The production you will see this evening is set in South America in the 1950's, a time when revolutions were experienced in Latin America as Juan and Evita Peron ruled in Argentina. The rich history of this period and region influences our production in flavor, style and iconic monarchs.

Instead of a traditional Greek chorus that might respond offstage, our chorus has been reimagined as town's folk. Our Sorceress and witches have been similarly transformed into revolutionaries and protestors. Besot by inner turmoil, our regal heroine eventually gives her love to the strapping general, Aeneas. Tragically, the lovers are then thwarted by the charismatic revolutionary leader and his followers. The demise of their tryst inspires one of the most gripping arias in the operatic canon, "Dido's Lament," which hauntingly flows into the final chorus opera.

We thank you for joining us this evening and now invite you to lose yourself in the rich musical textures and compelling drama of Nahum Tate and Henry Purcell's Dido & Aeneas.

thank you!

Thank you for attending tonight's production! The KSU College of the Arts Opera Theater Program is an important part of the vocal training for acting singers in the School of Music. Each semester, Opera Theater class develops either a production of a full-length opera or a Gala concert featuring scenes selected from various works, composers and styles. We have an enthusiastic and talented undergraduate program giving performance opportunities to learn about the magnificent art form of opera. While learning repertoire, style, character and drama, their development of a production enhances the historical and worldly richness of their education. Varying the genre, style and repertoire gives student singers fuller appreciation of music past and present. In recent years, KSU productions include Mozart's The Magic Flute, Gilbert and Sullivan's Iolanthe, Humperdinck's Hansel and Gretel, Nicolai's The Merry Wives of Windsor, Menotti's The Old Maid and the Thief, Donizetti's The Elixir of Love, and Puccini's Suor Angelica. We have recently included 20th and 21st Century operas such as Stephen Paulus's The Three Hermits, Thomas Pasatieri's The Hotel Casablanca, and Michael Ching's Speed Dating Tonight! We hope you enjoy this evening's production of Purcell's Dido and Aeneas.

Artist-in-Residence in Collaborative Piano

Judith Cole is considered by local area colleagues to be one of the most versatile pianists in the Atlanta commercial music scene. She has performed for corporate presidents, university presidents, and even a former President of the United States, in venues ranging from concert halls to nightclubs and recording studios, as a soloist and as a collaborative pianist.

When Professor Cole first arrived at Kennesaw State University, she taught classes in music theory and history, coached Opera and Musical Theatre, and accompanied student and faculty recitals. From 2008 to 2016 she played, coached and musically directed all the Musical Theatre productions for the Theatre and Performance Studies division of COTA in addition to her duties for the School of Music. Since fall 2016, she has been the Coordinator of Collaborative Piano for the School of Music, and now teaches Accompanying, private studio lessons, Advanced Class Piano, and coaches/plays for the Opera Theatre classes. Judy also enjoys a demanding schedule of performances with faculty and students. Additionally, in past years, Judy has been a featured soloist with the Georgia Youth Symphony Orchestra and the KSU Wind Ensemble.

Mrs. Cole has worked professionally and made a successful career over the last 35 years as a free-lance pianist and commercial musician playing in a variety of settings. To quote J. Lynn Thompson, founding Artistic Director of the Atlanta Lyric Opera, "Judy Cole is one of those rare artists who can move effortlessly between styles ranging from opera to Broadway, jazz to rock and roll. She is a conductor's and singer's dream of a pianist." Mrs. Cole has been featured on numerous recordings both as an accompanist and as a soloist, including her own CD By Request, and has several solo recordings in process at this time. As often as scheduling allows, she plays in the pit orchestra for Broadway touring shows playing at the Fox Theatre and major events at the Cobb Energy Performing Arts Center. She has also been selected by the Educational Testing Service to serve as an Aural Skills Reader for the national Advanced Placement Music Theory exams for several years.

Mrs. Cole earned her Bachelor of Music degree in Piano Performance from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, studying with Marvin Blickenstaff. After taking a year off from school, during which she toured the United States playing in a show band, she was invited to attend the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, where she earned her Master of Music degree in Accompanying, with a concentration in Musical Theatre and Chamber Music. Her teachers included Olga Radosavlovich at the Cleveland Institute of Music, and Dr. Robert Evans, Babbette Efron and Dr. Kelly Hale at CCM.

In addition to local performances, Mrs. Cole travels routinely to accompany classical, instrumental, vocal, and religious Jewish music concerts throughout the US where she is known for her ability to arrive, rehearse and perform demanding concert material all within a span of several hours. She has collaborated with many of the top Cantors and musicians in the Jewish music world, including Hazzan Naftali Herstik, Cantor Asher Hainovitz, Simon Sargon, Bonia Shur, Michael Isaacson, and Debbie Friedman. Judy is a member of the Guild of Temple Musicians (the national organization of Jewish musicians and composers), the American Federation of Musicians, and the Musical Theatre Educators Alliance. She is the staff accompanist at The Temple in Atlanta and is still an active commercial musician, playing both as a soloist and as a keyboardist/vocalist in her band.

about the school of music

Welcome to the Bailey Performance Center!

The School of Music at Kennesaw State University is an exciting place! We have a wonderful slate of performances planned for this year's Signature Series, and if you have not yet purchased your season tickets, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. The Atlanta Symphony returns again this year as well as a wonderful slate of other performances.

The Dr. Bobbie Bailey & Family Performance Center is celebrating its 10th Anniversary Season this year. When this building opened in October of 2007, it was transformational for the School of Music and for KSU! It continues to be a jewel in our crown and musicians from around the world love to perform here because of the wonderful acoustic properties of Morgan Hall.

The weekend of October 7th–8th, we had an alumni recital on the 7th and a grand celebration Sunday afternoon October 8th, with full choir and orchestra to celebrate all this Center has meant to us these past 10 years! In honor of the Bailey 10th Anniversary, we officially launched our Name a Seat Campaign during our celebration in October. What a wonderful way to honor a loved one or to provide for future programming for Morgan Hall.

I look forward to a long and rewarding relationship with you. With your continued support of music and the arts, I look forward to all that we will accomplish together!
