The Georgia Library Trustees, Friends, and Advocates Association (GLTFAA), a division of the Georgia Library Association, will hold a business meeting at the Georgia Libraries Conference in Columbus, Georgia on Thursday, October 5, 2017 at 8:00 a.m., room to be announced.

All who have an interest in advocating for libraries are welcome to attend. This includes not only public libraries but also academic and special libraries.

GLTFAA is excited to be co-sponsoring a session at the 2017 Georgia Libraries Conference with the Friends of Georgia Libraries (FOGL). The program is titled "Friends Groups and Their Libraries: A Special Relationship." The session will bring together panel members from friends' groups as well as library staff to share information on ways these two groups work together to improve their libraries.
