Oral Moses

Oral Moses, bass-baritone performs regularly throughout the United States and Europe singing Oratorio and Recitals with special emphasis on the Negro Spiritual and Art Song repertoire by African-American composers.

He has recorded several CDs of Art Songs and Spirituals by African-American composers among which is his CD entitled, “Oral Moses sings...songs of America.” As a solo recording artist for Albany Records his premiere CD, “Deep River: Songs and Spirituals of Harry T. Burleigh.” is featured in the PBS film documentary, “Antonin Dvorak in America.” His latest CD is entitled: Come Down Angels And Trouble The Water, is a collection of Spirituals celebrating the Negro Spiritual as a National Treasure.

Born in South Carolina he began his singing career as a member of the United States Seventh Army Soldiers Chorus in Heidelberg, Germany and as a member of the famed Fisk Jubilee singers while attending Fisk University following his military career. He is a contributing author in both the third edition of, “Notable Black American Women,” and the second edition of, “Notable Black American Men,” published by Gale Press. He is a frequent guest lecturer and clinician on the Negro Spiritual and presenter at workshops and conferences.

Still a very active and exciting performer, Oral Moses is retired Professor Emeritus of Voice and Music Literature at Kennesaw State University.
Name A Seat
in Morgan Concert Hall

The School of Music is offering the opportunity for friends and patrons to dedicate a seat in Morgan Concert Hall. Each dedicated seat will be permanently affixed with a plaque bearing your name, business name, or the name of someone you wish to honor.

Your contribution of $1000 per seat will immediately impact the programs of the School of Music and help to sustain the exceptional quality of music and live performance at KSU for years to come.
