GLA SPOTLIGHT

LaGrange College Frank and Laura Lewis Library

The Frank and Laura Lewis Library at LaGrange College is located on the Hill in the center of campus. The Lewis Library seeks to not only fulfill the research needs of faculty, staff, and students, but to also provide activities to reduce stress, to relax, and to have fun. In addition to the 88,000 print materials, the library also offers a puzzle table, a Lego table, various coloring activities, and fun events that occur throughout the semester. The main floor has a browsing collection that includes DVDs and Blu-rays for popular movies and TV shows; audiobooks; and books for pleasure reading.

The Lewis Library faculty and staff are available to serve students in person, online via chat, or around campus through roving reference. The library faculty and staff interact with patrons on social media as well. They post pictures of new books; changes to the library; faculty and staff highlights; event photos, such as hosting therapy dogs for students to pet during finals; and more.

Throughout the year, the library hosts many cultural enrichment events, study halls, library instruction sessions, and classes. Whether it is a continuing education event on international travel, a GRE practice test, or a foreign film night, the Lewis Library has a space for most events. The Corn Auditorium seats 49 people, the Multimedia Classroom seats 24, the Seminar Room seats 12, the Media Lounge seats five, and there are also various study rooms that students can book online.

The Lewis Library is home to the Suber Archives, a repository of college and local historical materials. The Suber Archives Specialist, Felecia Moore, is currently working on an oral history project to interview alumni, faculty, staff, and others who have ties to LaGrange College. Felecia now has a podcast where visitors can listen to clips from some of the interviews.
