2020-2021

Welcome to the Dr. Bobbie Bailey School of Music at Kennesaw State University

We offer a world class undergraduate education...training future performers, music educators, and leaders in the field of music. More than 285 majors and minors pursue degrees in performance, music education, composition, applied studies, theory, musicology, and ethnomusicology. Our programs and students stand out as the forerunners for the next generation of inspired musical scholars.

We pride ourselves on our students' accomplishments from successfully acing their first theory exams, perfecting their collective sounds in performances, to signing contracts for their first real jobs!

KSU Bailey School of Music has a long-standing tradition of student ensemble performances at state, regional, and national music conferences. Our student ensembles are regularly featured at prestigious conferences throughout the country, including the Georgia Music Educators, National Collegiate Choral Organization, National Band Association, Southern Division College Band Directors National Association, and the American Choral Directors Association Southern Division and National Conferences.

Our faculty are dynamic artists-performers-scholars who are conductors, teachers, composers, researchers, and artists who regularly perform with the Georgia Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta Opera, Atlanta Chamber Players, and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, to highlight just a few. KSU Bailey School of Music is a leader in music training regionally, nationally, and internationally.

Start your journey ... where talent is cultivated, creativity is nurtured, performers are inspired, and where passion is heard.

Leslie J. Blackwell, DMA

BIOGRAPHIES

Douglas Lindsey

Dr. Douglas Lindsey joined the faculty at Kennesaw State University in the fall of 2012, and is regularly in demand throughout the United States. As a soloist, he has been a featured artist with the Kennesaw State Orchestra, the Kennesaw State Wind Ensemble, Georgia Brass band, and at the International Trumpet Guild conference, Atlanta Trumpet Festival, and Trumpet Festival of the Southeast.

As an orchestral musician, he has performed as principal trumpet of the Memphis Symphony, section trumpet with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, principal trumpet of the Georgia Symphony Orchestra, section trumpet with the Macon Symphony, and has spent two summers as an orchestral fellowship winner at the Aspen Music Festival.

Alongside pianist Judy Cole, he has performed solo recitals all over the Southeast as a founding member of Duo Trompiano. In addition to solo work, Dr. Lindsey enjoys an active chamber music career as first trumpet with the Premiere Brass, founding member of the Atlanta Trumpet League, and a member of the Isthmus Brass. His love of building community with music is highlighted by his leadership role in the Georgia Brass Band where he currently serves as president, and as a solo cornet section member of the Fountain City Brass Band.

As an educator, he maintains a vibrant studio at KSU. His undergraduate program has achieved many successes in the last few years. The Trumpet Ensemble has appeared at the International Trumpet Guild Festival twice, and advanced to the highly-competitive National Trumpet Competition each year since 2014. Dr. Lindsey's students have found excellent graduate schools and job placements, they regularly win the KSU Concerto Contest, attend summer music festivals, and have won many ITG conference scholarships. His high school studio has grown exponentially, and now boasts about 20 eager 6th-12th grade trumpet players. His students are some of the top in the state of Georgia, and they regularly perform solo recitals, and earn spots in prestigious schools of music across the country.

Dr. Lindsey's former duties as music history lecturer at KSU as well as his many experiences on the cornetto and the baroque trumpet reflect his keen interest in the fields of early music and musicology. As an avid composer and arranger, he enjoys creating work for trumpet ensemble, brass quintet, and brass ensembles. His published dissertation, Beyond the Galant, is an arrangement of four Haydn symphonies for trumpet with historical information about Haydn, performance practice, and the history behind many of the works. This work is distributed by Hickey's music and available at www.hickeys.com. His many other arrangements and compositions are available on his website: www.dougtrumpeter.com.

Previous to his time at KSU, Dr. Lindsey played concerts all over Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Illinois with the acclaimed Wisconsin Brass Quintet (WBQ). Prior to his tenure with WBQ, Dr. Lindsey performed with the Yale Faculty Brass trio in a series of concerts ending in Carnegie Hall in New York City. In addition to the faculty brass, Dr. Lindsey also pursued a busy schedule with the Atticus Brass Quintet, winner of the 2009 Aspen Music Festival Quintet Fellowship. With Atticus, Dr. Lindsey had the opportunity to play outreach concerts all over Connecticut, perform alongside the American Brass Quintet, and play an exclusive concert on the Millennium Stage of the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C.

Previous to earning his DMA at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, Dr. Lindsey studied with Allan Dean at Yale, earning his Master of Music with the distinction of winning the John Swallow excellence in brass prize. Prior to Yale, he studied with Ray Mase, Louis Ranger, Kevin Cobb, Scott Moore and Richard Rulli. Dr. Lindsey received his music performance and music education degrees magna cum laude from the University of Arkansas-Fayetteville. Dr. Lindsey is a Schilke performing artist and performs on Facet Mutes.

Hollie Lawing-Pritchard

Hollie is the bass trombonist with the Savannah Philharmonic, and principal trombonist with the Georgia Brass Band. She has played with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta Opera Orchestra, Atlanta Ballet Orchestra, as well as the Hilton Head Symphony, Johns Creek Symphony, Columbus Symphony, Macon Symphony, and the Augusta Symphony, among others.

Hollie is a founding member and trombonist with the Midtown Brass Quintet. She played solo trombone with the DIVA big band in the show Maurice Hines is Tappn' thru life. Hollie has performed twice with the Athena Brass Band at the International Women's Brass Conference. She was also a featured soloist on the Georgia Brass Band's album, A Christmas Festival, and principal trombone on their album American Voices.

Hollie graduated with her B.M. in music performance from Georgia State University and did graduate studies at the Cleveland Institute of Music. Hollie is adjunct instructor of trombone at Kennesaw State University, Reinhardt University and Mercer University. She also maintains a private studio of trombone at Lassiter High School in Cobb County, as well as a studio in her home in Marietta, Ga.

Richard Williams

Richard Williams is a member of the Atlanta Ballet Orchestra, Artist-in-Residence for horn at Kennesaw State University, host of the Atlanta Horn Chamber Music festival, and horn instructor at the prestigious Westminster Schools in Atlanta. He has participated in the New Hampshire Music Festival and several recording sessions for video games, as well as a major motion picture soundtrack.

Richard has served as a substitute musician with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, Atlanta Opera Orchestra, and as the long-term substitute principal horn of Symphony Orchestra Augusta for their 2014-2015 season. Richard frequently plays with the Huntsville and Chattanooga Symphony Orchestras, and is fourth horn of the LaGrange Symphony Orchestra. For five years, he served as an adjunct faculty member at Columbus State University's Schwob School of Music.

Paul Dickinson

A native of Darlington, SC, Paul Dickinson works across the Southeast as both a performer and teacher. He recently joined the faculty at Kennesaw State University teaching tuba and euphonium. His pleasing blend of technique and musicianship has earned him praises from some of the most respected brass musicians in the U.S. and numerous placements in major regional, national, and international competitions. He has also been a semi-finalist for prestigious military band auditions. Paul currently serves as principal euphonium for the Gwinnett Symphony Wind Orchestra, principal baritone for the Georgia Brass Band, and principal euphonium for the Poinsett Wind Symphony based in Greenville, SC. He is also a founding member of DIVERGENCE, a professional tuba quartet based in Atlanta, GA.

In addition to his pursuit of performance excellence, Paul has a passion for music education. He regularly works with middle school, high school, and collegiate students across the Southeast. For over a decade, he has been presenting master classes on a variety of issues facing developing brass musicians of all ages. In addition to his work with brass-specific pedagogy, Paul regularly works as a consultant and clinician for both concert and marching ensembles. In the past few years, his students have received high ratings at solo and ensemble festivals, won contracts with championship DCI corps, gained acceptance to highly competitive college studios, and have rapidly advanced to take top seats in university-level ensembles at strong music schools in the region. Several of his students now lead successful band programs in the Southeast.

Early in May 2014, Paul began the development of a recording project called Foundations. The purpose of Foundations is to provide an easily accessible catalogue of early-to-intermediate solos and etudes for the euphonium, tuba, and trombone as a resource for music teachers, high school students, and young college musicians. The first album is now available for free perusal on Paul's website, www.DickinsonBrass.com, and future albums are in development.

Paul holds degrees in music education and performance from Furman University (BME, '11), Georgia State University (MM, '13), and Florida State University (DM, '16). He was primarily taught by Mark Britt (trombone), Fred Boyd (trombone), Mike Taylor (tuba), Eric Bubacz (tuba), Adam Frey (euphonium), and Paul Ebberts (tuba/euphonium).
