

5-1-2023

Georgia Library Spotlight: Azalea After Hours

Ivy Corder

Azalea Regional Library System, icorder@azalealibraries.org

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/glq>

Part of the Library and Information Science Commons

Recommended Citation

Corder, I. (2023). Georgia Library Spotlight: Azalea After Hours. Georgia Library Quarterly, 60(2). Retrieved from <https://digitalcommons.kennesaw.edu/glq/vol60/iss2/3>

This Column is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Kennesaw State University. It has been accepted for inclusion in Georgia Library Quarterly by an authorized editor of DigitalCommons@Kennesaw State University. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@kennesaw.edu.

Azalea After Hours

The Azalea Regional Library System (AZRLS) is excited to announce a new service offering—Azalea After Hours! Patrons are now able to pick up books and other library materials after hours and enjoy the convenience of quickly retrieving holds while on the go. The lockers also scan their library card (physical card or from the PINES app) or manually enter their library card number on the touch screen. An assigned locker door will open, where items may be retrieved. Patrons should securely close the door after picking up all items. AZRLS currently has lockers located at these member library locations: Eatonton-Putnam County Library (Eatonton), Greene County Library (Greensboro), Jasper County Library (Monticello), Monroe-Walton County Library (Monroe), Morgan County Library (Madison), and Sparta-Hancock County Library (Sparta).

The Azalea Regional Library System received grant funding to purchase the SmartAxess Lockers through an IMLS (Institute of Museum and Library Services) ARPA (American Rescue Plan Act) Digital Inclusion grant, administered by Georgia Public Library System.

To learn more about the Azalea Regional Library System, please visit <https://azalealibraries.org/>.

Ivy Corder is the marketing and outreach coordinator at Azalea Regional Library System

Promotional image for the program provide contactless, 24/7 access for patrons who prefer not to enter the building or who need outside accessibility.

AZRLS lockers are conveniently located near the library's main entrance, and patrons will either