BIOGRAPHY

Dajon Carter has been committed to making music since an early age. While Mr. Carter primarily performs on the viola, he is a musician capable of expressing himself on multiple instruments. Mr. Carter's work has included: shows for many Atlanta based theatres and churches, television, film, and studio recording, as well as composition. Dajon has been a John and Linda Cooke Quartet Scholar and served as principal violist of the University's Symphony Orchestra for all four of his years at Kennesaw State.
