Presentation of articles

1. Title of the article (followed by subtitles if there are) (each may contain up to 120 characters)
2. Name and Surname of the author(s).
3. The name of the university, research center or other scientific entity where the author(s) work.
4. Acknowledgments and/or funding source (if any)
5. Abstract (which must contain from 150 - 200 words)
6. Keywords (from 4-7 words)
7. The text of the article must be structured as below:
  - a. Introduction
  - b. Analysis and Results
  - c. Conclusion
8. Bibliography and References (which must not surpass 50 titles) must meet APA style standards. References during the text must be followed by a progressive number with superscript at the end of the word and explanations must be placed at the end of the page in which the reference is being inserted.
9. Figures (following the standard formats jpeg, gif, png) must have a resolution 300-600 dpi and be introduced in separate files, showing exactly the place where they will be placed, followed by the figures nomination.
10. Tables must be created in Excel format, in separate files, showing exactly where they will be placed, followed by clear descriptive labels.

Style Guide

1. Please follow U.S. spelling and punctuation conventions (i.e., labor, not labour; globalization, not globalisation).
2. Unless noted otherwise below, all content including text, abstracts, footnotes, appendices, and references, should have the following format:
  - a. 12 point Times New Roman/Times font
  - b. Double-spaced
  - c. Six-inch lines/one-inch margins all around
  - d. US Letter page size (8.5 X 11 in.) Left justified
3. Three headings are generally adequate to organize an article.
  - a. First-Level: Centered, bold, capitalize first letter of each word.
  - b. Second-Level: Left justify, bold, capitalize first letter of each word.
  - c. Third-Level: left justify and indent; bold, italicize, and capitalize first letter of first word only, follow with a period, include as part of text.
    - i. Example:

Heading One

Heading Two

Heading Three. Thenormalparagraphtexthere...

4. Use footnotes only to explain material that cannot be justified for inclusion in text or tables. Number the notes consecutively, using Arabic numerals, beginning with footnote "1." Use your word processing program to insert footnotes.

Editorial Review

Copyright Notice

Authors who publish with this journal agree to the following terms:

1. The Author retains copyright in the Work, where the term "Work" shall include all digital objects that may result in subsequent electronic publication or distribution.
2. Upon acceptance of the Work, the author shall grant to the Publisher the right of first publication of the Work.
3. The Author shall grant to the Publisher and its agents the nonexclusive perpetual right and license to publish, archive, and make accessible the Work in whole or in part in all forms of media now or hereafter known under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 License or its equivalent, which, for the avoidance of doubt, allows others to copy, distribute, and transmit the Work under the following conditions:
  - a. Attribution—other users must attribute the Work in the manner specified by the author as indicated on the journal Web site; with the understanding that the above condition can be waived with permission from the Author and that where the Work or any of its elements is in the public domain under applicable law, that status is in no way affected by the license.

4. The Author is able to enter into separate, additional contractual arrangements for the nonexclusive distribution of the journal's published version of the Work (e.g., post it to an institutional repository or publish it in a book), as long as there is provided in the document an acknowledgement of its initial publication in this journal.
5. Upon Publisher's request, the Author agrees to furnish promptly to Publisher, at the Author's own expense, written evidence of the permissions, licenses, and consents for use of third-party material included within the Work, except as determined by Publisher to be covered by the principles of Fair Use.
6. The Author represents and warrants that:
  - a. the Work is the Author's original work;

- b. the Author has not transferred, and will not transfer, exclusive rights in the Work to any third party;
  - c. the Work is not pending review or under consideration by another publisher;
  - d. the Work has not previously been published;
  - e. the Work contains no misrepresentation or infringement of the Work or property of other authors or third parties; and
  - f. the Work contains no libel, invasion of privacy, or other unlawful matter.
7. The Author agrees to indemnify and hold Publisher harmless from Author's breach of the representations and warranties contained in Paragraph 6 above, as well as any claim or proceeding relating to Publisher's use and publication of any content contained in the Work, including third-party content.
